

PARLEY ON GERMANY FAILS

Form Organization To Prepare For War Memorial Project

Launch Move To Plan For War Memorial Here

Many Ideas Suggested At Mass Meeting At Court House Last Night

COMMISSION TO HEAD PLAN STARTED

Representatives of some forty-eight organizations of New Castle expressed their ideas in the matter of a war memorial for the men and women who served in World War Two, when on Tuesday night, a mass meeting was held in the Lawrence County court house.

Out of the meeting came the following definite action: A war memorial commission was formed. Richard E. Rentz was named chairman and William Usselson secretary of the organization, the group seemed to agree that if a memorial is erected in New Castle, it should have utilitarian and recreational value. The majority of opinion expressed favored a building that would be a combination gymnasium, athletic coliseum, public auditorium and youth recreational center.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Mayor John F. Haven today stated that city hall offices would be closed on Good Friday. The Recreation center will also be closed Good Friday.

Out Pulaski road way in Neshannock township almost every household was inspired by the hint of spring in the air Tuesday to get out with a rake and start cleaning up the yard. There were several brush fires going and several fields have been burned to clear them of weeds.

Ashes and dirt accumulated on the streets during the winter, are now being hauled off by the city street department, it apparently being the idea that no further winter throw-backs will develop. In passing it might be well to state that a mighty good job of ashing streets and highways was done during the past winter, despite the almost continuous nature of the job for weeks.

Several motorists about the city are displaying the new front 1947 license plate for their cars from their windshields. Some have not found time to install the front plate, while others have no holder on the front of the car to place the plate. During the war years, a number of the car owners removed the front license holder as a useless attachment to their cars.

Pennsylvanians were asked today by Gov. James H. Duff to observe Good Friday April 4 "as a holy day of the deepest significance." "Good Friday represents to all Christian people throughout the world the supreme sacrifice of the son of God on behalf of the fellowship of man, and it behooves all Christian people to express by appropriate services the deep and holy significance of Good Friday," Duff said.

The downtown post office lobby reminded Pa New of a miniature pre-Christmas rush this morning. Lines were forming at the parcel post window as patrons were bent on getting out Easter eggs and other etables to distant relatives. Pa New was told that next to the Christmas rush this was the busiest week during the year of the parcel post clerks. The new pre-cancelled stamp machine was proving very effective.

Truman To Remain Close To His Desk

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—President Truman has decided to remain close to his desk in the White House during the next few critical months.
It is probable that the President will make no lengthy trips away from Washington until after Congress has adjourned.
Reasons For Decision
There are two compelling reasons for the presidential decision:
1. The international situation.
2. The failure thus far of the Republican controlled Congress to act with any degree of speed on numerous pieces of legislation which Mr. Truman considers of high importance to the nation.
The international situation, in a way, is the lesser consideration at this time in the President's belief that he should keep close to his White House desk.
The bogged-down Moscow peace conference and Mr. Truman's urgent desire for early congressional approval of his Greco-Turkish aid program are top matters of worry to the Chief Executive in the muddled international situation.
Presence Vital
Mr. Truman feels that his presence in Washington now is vital to his legislative program.
Pending, in addition to the Greco-Turkish loan, are such highly important administrative proposals as labor legislation, continuance of rental controls for another year, the Army-Navy merger plan and (Continued on Page Two)

Wilmington Road Work Slated To Begin April 15

State Highway Engineers In Process Of Staking Out New Road On Traffic Route 18

Officials of the New Castle Dunleavy company, Moravia street, said today that work on reconstruction and partial relocation of 3.65 miles of route 18, the New Castle-New Wilmington road, will be started in two weeks or about April 15, when the Pennsylvania Department of Highways engineers complete their task of laying stakes for the new road.

Highway engineers began Monday morning laying the stakes and it is anticipated that their work will be completed in two weeks, at which time the Dunleavy workers will take over.

Will Begin At Walmo
The work which will begin at Walmo, at the end of the present three-lane road, will involve complete rebuilding of the highway to a point near the New Castle Field club where it will take a new course. (Continued on Page Two)

Name Kennelly Chicago Mayor

Fourteen Year Regime Of Powerful Boss Kelly Is Ended

CHICAGO, April 2.—(INS)—Democrat Martin H. Kennelly was mayor-elect of Chicago today by a margin of 273,354 votes.
A record turnout of 1,565,832 voters gave the 59-year-old independent businessman 919,593 votes to 646,239 for Russell W. Root, his Republican opponent.

Kennelly will take office April 15, thus ending the 14-year regime of Edward J. Kelly, retiring boss of the powerful Chicago Democratic machine.

Running Mates Named
The new mayor is president of a warehouse and van line company and a director of Wilson & Co. meat packers.
The hands-off for the white-haired bachelor swept his running mates into office.
City Clerk Ludwig D. Schreiber was re-elected by a margin of 193,648. Joseph T. Baran won the city treasurer's job by 162,300 votes.
However, Republicans gained 11 seats in the 50-member city council in run-off elections in 19 wards.
Kennelly received news of his victory in a setting unique for its calmness. Absent was the roaring activity that marked old-time Kelly elections.

Route 278 Will Be Improved By State Highway Department

State Highway department officials stated today that the 35 miles of highway to be improved in Wilmington township for which bids are being advertised is located just west of the boro line of New Wilmington on route 278.
The road, which leads to Pulaski, connects New Wilmington with the present route 18. Before improvements were made some time ago route 18 ran through New Wilmington. The road was rerouted around the town.

Reveal U.S. Is Still Buying Russian Gold

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder revealed today that the United States is still purchasing gold from the Soviet government despite the inauguration of a "stop-Communism" drive by the Truman administration.

The disclosure was made in a letter to Rep. Smith (R) O., which the congressman inserted in the Congressional Record. The letter was in response to a query by the Ohioan whether the treasury favored continuance of gold purchases from Russia.

Snyder advised Smith:
Program Consistent?
"It is the policy of the treasury department to buy gold offered to it by governments and central banks of countries with which we maintain financial and commercial relations."

State Legislature Pays Tribute To Late Fred L. Rentz

Resolution Of Condolences Passed; To Be Sent To Members Of Family

HARRISBURG, April 2.—(INS)—The family of the late Fred L. Rentz, president of The New Castle News, was slated today to receive condolences from the state house of representatives.
The lower chamber approved a resolution introduced by Rep. James C. R. Lawrence, offering condolences of the house to the family of the late newspaperman who died May 13, 1946.

The resolution pointed out that Mr. Rentz had been in the newspaper business nearly 64 years at the time of his death and that he began his career as a printer's devil in 1882.

"Mr. Rentz conducted The New Castle News as he lived his own life, fearless of criticism, when he felt he was in the right; kindly to those who needed help and guidance," the resolution said.
"He was a Pennsylvanian who knew and loved his community and state with a devotion that was life long," it added. Mr. Rentz served a short unexpired term as mayor of New Castle in 1923.

"He did not have the opportunity of securing much formal education in his youth, but that he succeeded in educating himself is borne out by the fact that some years before his death, he was honored by Westminster college with the degree of doctor of humane letters," the resolution said.

A copy of the resolution also will be sent to the New Castle City Council.

Youth Dies Of Bullet Wound

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—(INS)—Police reported today that Kenneth Harding, 16, was killed last night at the home of a friend when he investigated a revolver belonging to a policeman who was also visiting the home.
Police said Harding and Rice Caldwell, 17, became curious about the gun and the victim pulled once but the gun failed to fire. When he squeezed the trigger a second time the gun went off and fatally wounded him in the chest.
Police said Patrolman James A. Gross would be questioned to discover why he left the pistol lying loose in the home.

Police Here Caught Wells Back In 1932

Reveal Burglar Shot At Zelenople Was Arrested For Robbery Attempt Here May 31, 1932

Donald T. Wells, 42, of Avalon, who was shot to death by A. G. Ramsay, garage proprietor, in the latter's garage, at Zelenople, early Tuesday morning where Wells and an accomplice were robbing the safe, was arrested May 31, 1932, by New Castle police after Wells, and an accomplice, fled from the Haney store on the Diamond, where they attempted to rob the safe, according to New Castle police.

Police Captain McMullen recalled from records today that, he was a patrolman in the First Ward when he discovered the men attempting to rob the Haney safe in 1932. He sent for reinforcements.

Police Lieutenant Kennedy, the late Sergeant Marion Young and Policeman Flinner responded.

The men escaped from Haney's via the Hoyt building and fled across the Public Square, pursued by bullets fired by Lieutenant Kennedy.

Second Suspect In Zelenople Case Confesses

ZELENOPOLE, Pa., April 2.—(INS)—State police reported today that a former Pittsburgh convict has admitted that he participated in the attempted safe robbery of a Zelenople garage in which one safecracker was killed.

Police said John Romito, 57, admitted that he was an accomplice of Donald T. Wells, 42, who was shot and killed by garage owner A. G. Ramsay. Ramsay trapped the men and was wounded in a pre-dawn gun battle with them yesterday.

Romito was arrested by police as he hiked along a road near Zelenople. He served terms for larceny, several burglaries and two armed holdups, police said.

Young Slayers Of Patrolman To Get Life Terms

COLUMBUS, Ind., April 2.—(INS)—Two 17-year-old youths faced sentencing to life in prison today for the slaying of an Indiana state policeman.

The convicted youths are William Francis Price and William Virgil Johnson.
Circuit Judge George W. Long was scheduled to pronounce sentence.

The two were found guilty of first degree murder by a jury in Columbus last night.
The policeman, Herbert Smith, was fatally shot December 5, after the youths had been stopped for questioning in connection with a stolen car they were driving.

Russia May Make Statement Monday To Security Council

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 2.—Soviet Russia hinted today that on Easter Monday it will have important pronouncements to make before the United Nations Security Council and probably to the commission on conventional armaments.
The council is scheduled to meet at 3 p.m. next Monday to hear the viewpoints of various governments on U. S. Representative Warren R. Austin's recent speech dealing with the Truman doctrine on aid to Greece and Turkey.
Soviet Delegate Andrei Gromyko's previous disclosure that he would "touch on the questions" raised by the Austin speech leaves little doubt that he will be one of the leading speakers on Monday if time permits. In the disarmament commission yesterday he made sure that the general debate was kept open for the next meeting of that eleven-nation body, which is on Monday morning.
Diplomatic observers believe that he has in his pocket the Soviet program for disarmament and may place it before the commission on that day.
The first three meetings of that body already have shown that the Big Five are apt to be at odds again when Russia has had her say, which is expected to be continued insistence that atomic weapons and those of mass destruction be banned and done away before all else.

Day Of Mourning Observed In Greece

ATHENS, April 2.—(INS)—The Greek nation today observed a day of mourning for King George II.

Court mourning for the monarch who died suddenly yesterday from a heart attack will be observed for six months. The court will be in deep mourning for three months and half mourning for the remainder of the period.

Paul Proclaimed King
Paul I, 45-year-old brother of the dead monarch who was proclaimed king, the new Queen Frederika and Princess Catherine sat up through the night with the body of King George.

The deceased king, garbed in the uniform of a field marshal, lay in the ceremonial hall in the eastern wing of the Royal Palace.

One Trainman Killed In Wreck

PASSENGER TRAIN SIDESWIPES FREIGHT ENGINE IN OKLAHOMA TODAY
(BULLETIN)
DURANT, Okla., April 2.—(INS)—At least one trainman was killed and several others were injured early today when a Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad passenger train sideswiped a freight engine near the town of Armstrong, Okla.

C. H. Friend, Katy agent at Durant, identified the dead trainman as "Hanson," of Denison, Tex., and said he was the engineer of the passenger train.
Friend said several other trainmen were injured and were being brought to hospitals in Durant. He expressed belief that none of the passengers was injured.
The agent said both trains were southbound at the time of the collision. The freight had been running ahead of the passenger and at the little town of Armstrong was backing into a siding when the passenger sideswiped the locomotive.
Both engines overturned. Friend said Hanson was pinned beneath the wreckage. Workmen were attempting to remove the body with acetylene torches.

Calls Beirne To Conference On Phone Strike

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—U. S. Conciliation Director Edgar L. Warren today summoned Joseph A. Beirne, president of the National Federation of Telephone Workers to a conference in an effort to avert a threatened nationwide phone strike. The union chief earlier demanded a congressional investigation of the Bell telephone system.

U.S. Has No Plan To Prevent War Says Patterson

Secretary Of War Urges Unification Of Armed Services As Deterrent To Aggressors

FIRST WITNESS ON MERGER PROPOSAL

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—Secretary of War Patterson warned Congress today that the United States has "no overall plan to forestall or prevent war."

He urged the unification of the armed services as a deterrent to possible aggressors.
Patterson told the House Committee on Executive Expenditures it is his belief that the marshalling of United States military strength will help ward off aggressive wars.

This marshalling of military "strength" could be obtained, he stated, by establishing a department of national defense, as proposed (Continued on Page Two)

Krug Submits Safety Report

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—Interior Secretary J. A. Krug today transmitted a report on American coal mine safety conditions to a Senate investigating committee which will probe the recent Illinois disaster that killed 111 miners.
Krug sent the report to Sen. Cordell (R) Ore., chairman of the three-man Senate group, as John L. Lewis' bituminous miners entered the second day of a week-long work stoppage to mourn the Illinois victims.

Eight-Hour-Day Plea Of Firemen Suffers Setback

McKEESPORT, Pa., April 2.—(INS)—McKeesport firemen's plea for an eight-hour day suffered a setback today after fire underwriters told city council that fire insurance costs would increase if the plan is adopted without adding more fire department personnel.

The underwriters recommended, following a survey of the city, that 16 more firemen be added if the new eight-hour day plan is adopted.
Mayor Charles A. Kinkaid said the addition of new men would increase city costs by $50,000 annually and the city "just doesn't have the funds."

Fire insurance rates for McKeesport reportedly would increase approximately two cents per $100 on buildings and ten cents per $100 on home furnishings.

ASK ASSEMBLY TO APPROVE LIMITING PRESIDENT TENURE

HARRISBURG, April 2.—(INS)—The General Assembly's approval of a proposed amendment to the federal constitution to limit President's to two terms was asked today by House Majority Leader Herbert P. Sorg.

The amendment must be approved by three-fourths of the nation's legislatures to become effective.

GROVE CITY BOY ENDS OWN LIFE

GROVE CITY, Pa., April 2.—The coroner's office today reported Charles D. Findley, 15-year-old high school freshman, took his own life by hanging himself with a belt from the top of a wardrobe in his home in Grove City.

Abandon Hope On Unification Plan Agreement

Report Marshall To Leave Unless Soviets Display More Conciliatory Stand

SECRET PARLEY IS UNSUCCESSFUL

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Warier, International News Service

MOSCOW, April 2.—All hope for immediate agreement on unification of Germany was abandoned in Moscow today and U. S. Secretary of State Marshall was reported ready to leave within ten days unless the Soviets display a more conciliatory stand.

Definite signs that Marshall's patience is wearing thinner and thinner followed inability of the Big Four council of foreign ministers to agree on unification.
The council turned toward the less controversial question of the future political structure of Germany. But failure to agree on unification at a secret, restricted session yesterday prompted one of the few participants to say:
"We had a try, but the barometer still shows stormy weather ahead."

Failure of a unification agreement means that the present zonal divisions occupied by the United States, Britain, France and Russia will remain in status quo for an indefinite period.

Although no one likes the word "partitioning," the hard fact that for some time to come Germany will remain a partitioned country.

The council of foreign ministers may produce a face-saving statement that they favor unification in principle, but this is no more than they agreed to at Potsdam nearly two years ago.

Thus, the Big Four have failed in what was their greatest single objective—to wipe out the zonal frontiers and see Germany treated as an economic whole.

Officials predicted that the French, by force of circumstances, will be obliged to merge their zone with the present Anglo-American bi-zonal operation.

The partitioning therefore will remain. (Continued on Page Two)

Report Relief Ship Bombed

LONDON, April 2.—(INS)—The British relief ship Wancheng laden with UNRRA supplies was reported by Reuters today to have been bombed and machine-gunned along the China coast by airplanes supposedly belonging to the Chinese Central government.

The planes were said to have made three separate attacks on the Wancheng as it set sail from Shih Chiao for the port of Tsingtao.

The attack was described as the third in two months on the Wancheng by planes identified as belonging to the Nationalist government.

Maj. Gen. Glenn Edgerton, director of UNRRA in China, recently protested to the Chinese government against similar attacks in view of previous assurances that the Chinese military would not hinder distribution of UNRRA supplies to Communist-controlled areas.

The general was said to have reported the latest attack to UNRRA headquarters in Washington.

Demands Probe Of Bell System Labor Policy

Threat Of Nation-Wide Phone Strike Deepens; Walkout Date Is Monday Morning

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—Joseph A. Bieme, president of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, today demanded a congressional investigation of the Bell System labor policy as the threat of a nation-wide phone strike deepened.

Bieme, in letters to Senate Majority Leader White (R) Maine, and House Leader Halleck (R) Ind., asserted that the Bell System's refusal to bargain on contract renewals is responsible for failure of collective bargaining and the resultant strike threat.

A walkout of telephone workers throughout the United States is scheduled for next Monday at 6 a. m., EST.

Bieme declared: "Major factor in producing this strike if it occurs is company refusal to bargain, either at the local or national level."

"We have sought to obtain an agreement to bargain nationally but we have not insisted upon this method."

"We will bargain in any way the industry desires and at any level. All we want to do is bargain."

Denmark Election Shows Communist Strength Decreased

COPENHAGEN, April 2.—(INS)—Complete returns of balloting for Denmark's first chamber today showed gains by the Social Democrats and the government minority party, the left agrarians.

Heavy losses were suffered by the radical Liberals and Conservatives. Communist strength was somewhat less than expected.

Observers interpreted the returns as sharpening the division between right and left-wing politics. They pointed out the expected new seating of the first assembly—called the Landsting—would increase the strength of any unified action by Social Democrats and Communists.

Social Democratic strength was particularly strong in the capital city of Copenhagen.

Elections chosen by the balloting will meet on April 11 to name 38 members who will serve eight-year terms in the Landsting.

HOLD TWO SUSPECTS

GETTYSBURG, April 2.—(INS)—Police today reported they held two suspects in connection with the slaying of Herbert L. Humpert, 70-year-old Adams county farmer, and hinted the case may be solved soon.

The announcement was made after an inquest was cancelled yesterday. The identity of the persons detained was withheld.

Humpert's body was discovered in the barn on his farm March 26. He had been dead for an estimated two days. Death reportedly was caused by severe head injuries.

eliminating the dangerous curve at that place. The road will be widened to a four-lane project at the hill adjacent to the Castle View Burial Park and will remain four-lane until the highway reaches the top of the hill when it will return to a three-lane stretch.

Company officials announced that from 100 to 150 men will be used on the project which will take until October 1 to complete if weather conditions during the summer prove satisfactory and the work can be done without stoppage.

New Wilmington Job Also

Early last fall the Duntile company was awarded a contract for improvements in the borough of New Wilmington on Market street. The work will involve straightening of a curve and reconstruction of the highway. The New Wilmington project will get under way very shortly, it is reported, and will be in process of construction at the same time as the route 18 work.

the fate of the President's $7.5 billion dollar budget recommendation. Another piece of legislation that Mr. Truman lists in the top bracket for national security, soon to be presented to the Congress, is universal training.

The President also is considerably concerned over the present tax cut measure.

Mr. Truman was to have gone to Mississippi for a meeting of the Delta Cotton association May 8.

Trip To New York

He will make a one-day trip to New York April 21 to address a luncheon meeting of publishers during the American Newspaper Publishers' association meeting.

Otherwise, his travel schedule is clear for the time being until Congress gets its work done and goes home sometime around mid-July.

Mr. Truman may make a quick flight to his Missouri home to see his 94-year-old mother, who is bedridden with a broken hip, on Mother's Day.

A state visit to Canada has been tentatively planned for early in the summer, but this will depend upon the situation in the world at large, as well as in Congress, at that time.

Two Severe Earth Shocks Recorded

NEW YORK, April 2.—(INS)—Two severe earth shocks were recorded today on the Fordham university seismograph.

Rev. Joseph J. Lynch said the quakes occurred about 8,500 miles from New York but he was unable to specify the direction.

The first shock was recorded at 12:38:26 a. m., EST, and the second 1:07:40 a. m., EST.

LAUNCH MOVE TO PLAN FOR WAR MEMORIAL HERE

and said that while his organization had been based on the idea of a public meeting such as this was, he believed the group should be organized for the specific purpose of fostering a war memorial. He then appointed Richard E. Rentz as temporary chairman.

Mr. Rentz outlined briefly some of the opinion that had been given him by citizens and organizations on the matter of a memorial. The first letter read was that of the International Association of Machinists, local 1671, in which it was urged that the memorial be a "living memorial" such as a basketball coliseum. Later the president of the union, Arson Armand, reaffirmed this position, as did Charles Smith, a member.

Joseph A. Pearson, commandant of the Gunners Sergeant Harry T. Burns detachment, Marine Corps League, suggested taking over a surplus hanger from the War Assets Corporation and using it, as other communities have, for a building such as was suggested.

"Not Pile Of Stone"
Mr. John E. Elliott said the memorial "shouldn't be a pile of stone" but rather a building that would serve the needs of the people.

Attorney Walter A. Kiehl, commander of the Neshannock post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, said that Rochester, N. Y., had gone into a plan which would provide apartments, recreational facilities and a park. This he suggested was worth investigating for New Castle. In his remarks Mr. Kiehl said there is need for a "stationary" memorial, a monument where the names of war dead would be placed.

There is need for a shrine, said he, "where bereaved parents and relatives can go at times to mourn." Such a monument is proposed by the county commissioners who have asked the Gold Star Mothers to select the design they want.

Paul Cuba presented the idea of taking over Quonset huts for buildings and said a number of cities were doing that. He said a large hut could be made into a presentable looking structure and would house 5000 to 7000.

Mrs. Joseph Hartman said that Youngstown was bonding itself for more than a million dollars to provide a war memorial.

Charles P. Walther urged that if a war memorial is to be erected that it should be done right. "If Youngstown can bond itself for a million," said he, "we certainly can do half as much."

Charles E. Allen pointed out that city, county and school authorities were permitted by law to join in the expense of a war memorial. He read from the Act of 1919.

More Suggestions
Mrs. James Moorhead asked that the youngsters be included in the facilities proposed for the memorial. Frank T. Sargent suggested a building something like the Soldiers and Sailors memorial in Pittsburgh, and Dr. Frank L. Burton, superintendent of the New Castle public schools, said that the need for physical education in the public schools was large. "It seems to me that a building providing for such facilities, maintained by the school system, and used by the general public would fill a need and accomplish a purpose," said he.

Rev. George R. D. Braun spoke briefly upon the need for a strong organization.

Mayor John F. Haven and Councilman James Gibson spoke and said they were interested in the memorial idea as was all of city council.

Alec Samuels then suggested the election of a permanent chairman and secretary, giving the chairman authority to name an executive committee and to call the next meeting.

MINISTER RESIGNS
WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—President Truman announced today the resignation of David Gray as United States minister to Ireland.

Gray, who served as United States envoy to the Irish Republic throughout the war, resigned for what he termed "personal reasons."

Body Will Lie In State
The body of George II is to be taken to the Athens Cathedral Thursday where it will lie in state until the funeral Sunday.

He will be interred in the tomb of the Greek royal family at Tatoi, site of the family's country residence.

After ascending the throne, King Paul addressed the nation by radio and appealed to the country to unite.

The new king declared: "Our eternal country is calling on us in the struggle for her very independence and liberties."

He promised that the nation would be successful in its goal for a happy future if the populace united.

With the passing of King George, the six-year-old son of the new monarch, Prince Constantine, becomes the crown prince of Greece.

Smith asked, in a statement accompanying Snyder's letter whether this program was consistent with "the Truman program for halting further Russian aggression."

Smith asserted that "Mr. Snyder's letter implies that the treasury does favor continuing buying gold from Russia."

Snyder declared further: "The treasury believes that the purchase of gold in accordance with this established policy is necessary to the continued use and free acceptance of gold as an international medium of exchange."

the sentence given to Wells was to serve 3 1/2 to 8 years for breaking, entering and larceny, in western Pennsylvania.

Tipped off by telephone by two men, sleeping above his garage in Zelienople, Ramsey armed himself, entered the garage and was met with gunfire, which he returned. Wells was struck by three bullets and Ramsey suffered a wound in his hip.

Wells dead body, with a revolver, in his hand, was found in a ditch outside the garage.

His accomplice fled, but a State police dragnet rounded up John Romito, 446 Taylor street, Pittsburgh, and are holding him as an accomplice.

One of the reasons why Boyd Funeral Service can offer many advantages and yet keep costs at a very low level is personal effort and service on the part of this family organization.

From the day our Home for Funerals was opened, it has been operated on the basis of personal service. That is why our patrons get more for their money in funeral service.

We invite comparison of service and cost—and will gladly furnish any information to that end.

JEAN HAUG WEDS J. KENNETH BLANK

In the First U.P. church at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at a candle-light ceremony, Miss Jean Haug, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haug, of 2106 Highland avenue, became the bride of J. Kenneth Blank, son of George W. Blank, of 816 Wayne avenue, Ellwood City. Palms, ferns and lighted white tapers in branched candelabra banked the altar.

Dr. S. E. Irvine officiated at the single ring ceremony solemnized on the thirty-second wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt ending in a brush train. Her veil, fingertip length, fell from a white flower halo band and she carried a white Bible marked with gardenias and streamers caught with lily-of-the-valley.

Three sisters of the bride were her attendants. Miss Helen Haug, as maid of honor wore a gown of rose taffeta and the Misses Anna Mae and Florence Haug, as bridesmaids wore gowns of blue taffeta. They all carried colonial bouquets of mixed spring flowers and wore small posy headresses of the same flowers.

Howard E. Blank was his brother's best man and another brother, G. William Blank and Raymond Anderson, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

In a half-hour recital of organ music preceding the ceremony, Mrs. John F. Love, "Liebestraum," Clair de Lune, "Meditation" and "To the Rose," Walter Haug, of Butler, soloist, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and the Lord's Prayer.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception for 130 guests in the church dining room. Mrs. Donald Graham and Mrs. LeRoy French, of Ellwood City, presided at the bride's table from which refreshments were served. On the table were two three-tiered bride's cakes. Other aides were Miss Del Davidson, Mrs. Glenn Carpenter, and Mrs. Milligan Cromie.

Mr. and Mrs. Blank left on a wedding trip by motor to Washington, D.C., and on their return will take up residence in Ellwood City. Mrs. Blank, a graduate of New Castle high school, is cashier for the Colonial Life Insurance Company. Mr. Blank, a graduate of Lincoln high school, Ellwood City, is affiliated with the George W. Blank Supply Company in Ellwood City.

MOTHERS GUESTS AT JUNIOR CIRCLE TEA

Mothers of members of the Junior Reading Circle were special guests at a delightful play review program and tea Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Jameson Hospital nurses home.

Highlight of the evening's program and a presentation much enjoyed by the group was a review of George Kelly's play "Craig's Wife" given by Mrs. A. Pearson Furst. Mrs. Furst was introduced to the group by Mrs. Scott Lowery who was in charge of the program.

As they arrived mothers and guests were presented with corsages. During business, election of officers was carried out following a report by Mrs. Raymond Webb for the nominating committee. New officers elected to serve for 1947-48 are: president, Mrs. Scott Lowery; vice president, Mrs. John Riley; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Salsbury; recording secretary, Miss Mary Virginia Harris; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Woodworth.

Mrs. Lloyd Shenefelt of Beaver was announced as the winner of a special project. Drawing was in charge of Mrs. F. W. Hutchison and Mrs. E. B. Sankey.

Tea was served from a table prettily decorated in traditional Easter colors with Mrs. A. Pearson Furst and Mrs. Charles Bogue pouring. Former members present from out-of-town were Mrs. Gerald Morris and Mrs. Charles Bogue, both of Warren, O., and Miss Fern Cloak of Philadelphia. Miss Frieda Gooding was a special guest.

Hostesses were Mrs. William Carr, Mrs. William Woodworth, Mrs. Russell Davis and Miss Mary Virginia Harris.

Next meeting will be May 6 in the Swing Lobby room in City Hall when hostesses will be Mrs. Walter Preston, Miss Edith Cleveland, Miss Elizabeth Millholland and Miss Mildred Miller.

RELATIVES GATHER, MARK ANNIVERSARY

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Huff, 604 North Liberty street, a group of relatives gathered on Sunday afternoon and evening for a party. The occasion was in honor of the former's mother, Mrs. Mamie Patterson, Mt. Jackson road, observing her birthday anniversary.

Sixteen guests sat down to a splendid dinner, served by the hostess, with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Slaven, and Mrs. Daisy Young as aides. Bouquets of flowers and a lovely birthday cake graced the table.

A period of reminiscing followed the dinner. The hostess, Mrs. Huff, received a number of nice gifts. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patterson and son William of Kent, O., Mrs. Lizzie Slaven and daughter Mary and Mrs. Daisy Young of Struthers, O., and Miss Edna Batterfield of Youngstown.

S. OF D. SOCIETY MEETING TUESDAY

S. of D. Missionary society of Central Presbyterian church met in the church Tuesday evening for a monthly meeting.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Oscar Rhodes and Mrs. Mont Forney was leader for the evening. Mrs. George Conway reviewed the first chapter of the new study book "Famous Bible Women."

Plans were made for the mothers and daughters banquet to be held in the church dining room May 6, at 6:30 o'clock. It will be a tureen dinner.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Oscar Rhodes, Mrs. Glenn Moore, Mrs. George Conway and Mrs. Herbert Davidson.

LUELLA WALTERS AFFIANCED TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Walters, of 1041 Rose avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucila Joan Walters, to Charles Edward Goins, son of Mrs. Gertrude Ann Goins, of Herrin, Ill., and the late William M. Goins.

DOUBLE WEDDING IS PLANNED BY SISTERS

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage and double wedding of the Misses Virginia and Jean LaMarca which will be an event of April 12 at St. Lucy's church in the Seventh ward at 9:30 a. m.

Miss Virginia LaMarca will become the bride of Michael Marso, son of John Marso, 14 Maples street, and Miss Jean LaMarca will become the bride of Ronald DeFlore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeFlore, 426 East Reynolds street.

Maid of honor for Virginia will be Miss Rose Cricione, while her bridesmaids will be Miss Jean Marso, Miss Mary Leone and Miss Ida Conti. Best man will be Vincent LaMarca, brother of the bride-to-be. Ushers will be John Mars, of Alliquippa, Angelo Mazzocco and James Priscaro.

The wedding party for Miss Jean LaMarca will be Miss Viola Conti as maid of honor, Pauline DeFlore, Angeline Cumo and Verna Drapko, bridesmaids. Best man will be Augustus LaMarca, of Detroit, Mich., brother of the bride. Ushers will be Carl Leone, Victor Conti and Eugene Conti.

An open house reception will be held following the ceremony in the home of Mrs. James Leone, 509 West Cherry street, sister of the brides-elect.

The girls are the daughters of Mrs. Angelo LaMarca, 200 West Cherry street.

A delightful surprise shower in honor of the Misses Virginia and Jean LaMarca, the double wedding brides-elect, was enjoyed in the home of Miss Vida Conti March 29, when she entertained at her residence, 316 West Cherry street.

Numerous games were featured during the evening with prizes going to Miss Ellen Elisco and Miss Helen Dantonio. Later a mock wedding was performed.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Ida Conti, Mrs. Mary Leone and Miss Catherine DeSemone. The honorees received a number of lovely gifts.

POETRY GROUP HAS APPRECIATION MEET

One of the most delightful appreciation programs of the Poetry Group was the one Tuesday evening in the public library when Lewis Carroll and Ted Robinson and their verse were the subject of papers by Miss Frances Haydon and Miss Beulah Ruthrauff.

Lewis Carroll's biography and some of his nonsensical parodies were discussed by Miss Haydon and the biography of Ted Robinson and his less known humorous verse were discussed by Miss Ruthrauff. It was of interest to the group that the latter poet was for many years a resident of Cleveland.

A number of original poems were submitted and for these Miss Haydon acted as critic.

During a short business meeting with Miss Sarah Leslie presiding, it was announced that the poetry calendar project for 1948 is closed. Mrs. George Henderson is chairman in charge of assembling it.

Two members have submitted entries in the State Federation of Women's clubs poetry contest. Next meeting will be workshop meeting on April 17 at the library when lessons on the ballade and parodies and verse translations from the foreign languages will be received back from Clement Wood.

Next regular appreciation meeting will be May 6.

Weddell Bible Class

Tuesday evening, members of the Weddell Bible class of the Mahoning Methodist church, assembled in the home of Mrs. T. J. LaRock, West Madison avenue for their monthly meeting.

Devotions were conducted by the teacher, Mrs. J. A. Weddell who chose for her theme, "God's Rainbow of Races."

Lunch was served by the hostess aided by her co-hostess, Mrs. M. R. Olmstead.

The next meeting of the class will be on May 6, with Mrs. J. T. Smoot and Mrs. R. B. McClure as joint hostesses.

Lydia Circle Postpones

Lydia Circle Assembly, originally scheduled for Thursday, April 3, has been changed to Thursday afternoon, April 10, at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist church.

WM. COOPERRIDER ENGAGED IN WEST

Betrothal of Miss Virginia Burris of Phoenix, Ariz., to William Cooperrider, of Tucson, Ariz., was revealed recently at an announcement party in the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Burris, of Phoenix.

Miss Burris attended Woodrow Wilson High school of Long Beach, Cal., before graduating from North Phoenix High school. She was a member of Theta Tau Omega sorority at Stephens college in Montana and is now a senior at the University of Arizona where she is majoring in nutrition.

Mr. Cooperrider, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Cooperrider, is a graduate of Tuscon High school in his home town before enlisting in the service where he served four years as a pilot in the Marine Corps. After his discharge he reentered the University of Arizona where he is a junior in the College of Agriculture. He plans to finish his school work after a summer wedding.

Having many friends in New Castle from frequent visits here since early childhood, Mr. Cooperrider is a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Irvine and a brother of Miss Nancy Cooperrider, all of 1401 Highland avenue.

Looking At Life

By ERIC BRANDEIS

I certainly didn't expect to get a letter like this from staid New England, but here it is from Hollister, Mass., and let us see whether we can't do something about it.

"Have just finished your very fine article on men's clothes and your comments meet my approval 100%."

"It is certainly high time that we poor males were given a break and allowed to wear something besides the dull, drab, uncomfortable duds we now suffer in."

"A woman with her choice of all the wonderful colors and fabrics can certainly have fun. And not only that, millions of dollars are spent to cover her flaws. Foundation garments, facials, hairdos, etc., create glamour girls out of very ordinary people, while we poor males are doomed to the same d—n things all the time."

"Why not start an organization of men, and I am sure plenty would join it, and see what could be done to improve matters?"

"I have some ideas and would like to talk it over with anyone who is interested. Changing the color of the same old kind of suit may be a help but it isn't enough."

"I don't advocate ribbons and lace (that's for gals only), but I think some clever garments could be designed that would improve men's appearance."

"Do you have any ideas on the subject?"

I am not going to give you the writer's name, but if we start his proposed Society for the Improvement of Male Personality (we could call it SIMP for short) I shall certainly try to have him elected president.

However, come to think of it, there has already been much progress made in man's attire. Just a few days ago, in the society news, I saw a picture of the Duke of Windsor, taken in Palm Beach. He wore a shirt with short sleeves and a whole flock of pelicans or doves (I couldn't exactly tell which) flying all over the darn thing. The pictures wasn't in color, but I can just imagine the pinks and yellows and blues in those birds.

And when we visited out in Hollywood last fall, we certainly saw some glorious sights in male attire.

Loud plaids, sky-blue pants, orange-colored sandals, green-yellow-and-red scarves were among the more modest accessories. All that was lacking was the name of the wearer in neon lights.

While I was eating my breakfast this morning I watched the birds that come to the feeder outside for their meals.

I noticed that several of the males of different species had changed to spring colors. The skink showed a lot of yellow, the woodpecker's little red cap looked brighter than last week, and even the blue jay seemed to have joined the SIMP in preparation for the mating call.

If the birds do it, why can't we? So, let us men form the SIMP and all join it.

What do you say?

EDUCATION

The Department of Health can accomplish more by education than by compulsion.

People as a rule, want to be better and live better and know more and have more.

They want to be healthy and comfortable.

Schools and churches and newspapers and magazines and women's clubs and granges and libraries and boy scouts and girl reserves and unions and laborers and medical societies all help to educate people.

An educated and enlightened community will be cleaner and healthier than an ignorant and superstitious one.

Our land is comparatively free from plagues and devastating epidemics but it is not that way everywhere.

When our nation becomes educated and prosperous we learn that we must share our knowledge and wealth with the rest of the world in order to be able to keep part of what we have.

NO BAN ON SICKNESS

Just two days after President Truman announced the existence of a new labor-management agreement designed to settle disputes in the building industry and prevent strikes, 1,500 carpenters in Middlesex county, New Jersey, became ill. The business agent of Local 1006 of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America took pains to explain that they were not on strike. He said he had advised the men to get well in a hurry if contractors announce their willingness to pay $2.10 an hour. The new agreement, the President quickly is discovering, should have considered prevention of epidemics as well as of strikes.—New York Sun.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

REGULATE BABY'S SLEEPING SCHEDULES

Lots of babies awaken once or several times a night because they are hungry. Indeed, some babies eat more by night than by day. Of her baby 15 months old, the mother writes:

"She has never stopped waking up at night for her bottle. I put her to bed at seven o'clock. She wakes up about 11:30 and again at 3:30. I have tried giving her a drink of water, but it doesn't work. She just cries until I feed her."

"She doesn't eat" much during the day and I think that may have something to do about it. Since you advise letting the child alone if she does not want to eat.

Enough Sleep
"I am also worried about whether or not she is getting enough sleep. She wakes up at 6:00 a. m., sometimes earlier. She takes a nap lasting about an hour, but only if I put her to sleep."

In part, I answered her: Your baby is not getting enough sleep. The sleep problem is related to the eating problem. Yes, I have said you should let the child alone if she does not wish to eat. But I also have said that if she refused the food offered her you should give her no more until the next regular feeding time. You followed my advice only in part, and that part is no good without the other part. She can't be very hungry by day if she is filled up with food by night.

Twice you admit that you let that child manage you: 1. "She just cries until I feed her." 2. "She takes a nap . . . only if I put her to sleep." In neither instance do you let her cry herself to sleep. If you always feed her at night because she cries to be fed then, or always rock or teeter her to sleep, when are you going to quit obeying her instead of training her in the very alphabet of obedience? Well, you shouldn't be scolded. You have been trying hard. But I think I can show you how to make it easier in the long run for yourself and how to cultivate good eating and sleeping habits in your little daughter. Please study carefully the two bullet-jets enclosed on eating and sleeping to be had by anybody else in a stamped addressed envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

If you do study them and follow them literally you will let that youngster cry herself to sleep at the first period of waking at night.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

The New Castle Booster Club to our way of thinking really did a fine turn for the citizens of this community last night when they sponsored a meeting to consider what should be done about constructing a War Memorial. A very representative group met in Court Room number one and discussed the question pro and con. 48 Organizations were represented . . . this included industry, labor, religious, service and veterans groups . . . city and county governmental representatives too . . . many ideas were exchanged and everyone seemed genuinely interested in providing a place where the youth of our community might go . . . where good living, good sportsmanship and comradeship might exist that will make the youth of today our leaders of tomorrow.

What are other communities doing to solve their War Memorial problem . . . for example, in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, a War Memorial Committee . . . made up of all citizens of that community . . . are today raising $750,000 to build a large arena. One contribution by the Johnstown operations of Bethlehem Steel was announced . . . it amounted to $100,000.

Over in our neighboring city of Youngstown . . . over one million dollars will be raised for similar work . . . Some of this money around the country will be raised by Bonded Indebtedness . . . some will be raised by donations from citizens who realize that now is the time to build up a community . . . Just how large is a community . . . we define it as being as large as the furthest reach of our facilities . . . here in this valley . . . community reaches much further than the city line that bounds New Castle . . . so we won't mention the project as being a city project . . . it's bigger than a city . . . it's as big as the combined citizenry of this community.

In another section of this newspaper you will find a complete report of the War Memorial meeting of last evening . . . if you were not there . . . please take note . . . you too can become a member of the group . . . and friends . . . there will be no dues . . . May every citizen take hands.

THE WAY OF ANIMALS
Some counsel: "Grab it while you can."
"Get while the getting's good," they say.
"Possession proves the better man." Yet, wolves and wildcats live that way.

But wolves and wildcats need no more
Than strength and speed to strike and kill.
They're only food to battle for.
Their stomachs day by day to fill.

Beyond themselves they've thought for none.
No wish to better what they find
Or for the ones who follow
Glad memories to leave behind.

To wolves and wildcats are denied
The hopes and dreams allowed to man.
The joys of pity and of pride,
And living to a nobler plan.

See Influence On U. S. Policy

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Two major developments in Europe today were expected to influence United States foreign policy.

These were the sudden death of King George of Greece and the decree of Generalissimo Francisco Franco proclaiming Spain to be a monarchical state.

Aside from the formal condolences for the death of the Greek regent, officials were reluctant to discuss the significance of these two major developments. They preferred to study the situations presented thereby before making any commitments.

Weakens Opposition

In the case of the Greek king's death, however, it was anticipated that the opposition to the 400-million dollar Greek-Turkish aid bill would be weakened. One of the major points made by the opposition has been the charge that Greek Rightist elements have been satellites, if not supporters, of the Greek monarchy.

However, all information available to the state department indicates that the plebiscite which restored the Greek monarchy to the throne last September was fairly representative of the will of the Greek people. They feel, moreover, that the Communist elements which have been the best organized in Greece will continue their fight against the monarchy.

King Paul, the new ruler, is reported to be a popular figure. He also lacks the vulnerability attached to the late regent since the latter supported the dictatorship of Metaxas in 1935.

Greater Caution

Even greater caution was shown in appraising Franco's decree establishing Spain as a monarchy. Some believed that it would create greater stability in that devastated country. Others thought it might touch off a fresh wave of political upheaval.

The United States was expected to sit back and await future developments in Spain before making its official position clear.

While not opposed to restoration of the monarchy, officials were reported to feel that the power given the throne and the liberties given the Spanish people should prove an important matter in U. S. relations with Spain.

The problem of holding free elections was believed to be another factor in the situation.

Washington observers felt that ultimately the United Nations would be called on to solve the question of democracy. It was through that body that all powers were asked to sever diplomatic relations with Franco's government. The same organization probably will have to act before the United States sends a new ambassador to Madrid.

NEW YORK.—Henry A. Wallace, former vice-president of the United States: "We ask that the United Nations face the problem of security not piecemeal but on a world-wide basis. Presidential Vetoes Under Discussion

WASHINGTON, April 22.—There are too many reports about the Truman vetoes for them not to have some solid foundation. Even the fact that some of them emanate from the headquarters of Mr. Gerald Sullivan, acting chairman of the Democratic National Committee, does not entirely discredit them.

MR. SULLIVAN, it will be recalled, was the gentleman who, caught in a transparently cheap political trick, was first savagely spanked by Senator Vandenberg, and then, a few days ago, somewhat more gently but nevertheless definitely, spanked by Mr. Truman whom he had greatly embarrassed. If, as now understood, Mr. Sullivan, because of Mr. Hannegan's health, is permanently to succeed him as national chairman, not many will consider it a break either for the Administration or the party.

FOLLOWING so closely the recent exhibition of Mr. Sullivan as an overtalk and exceedingly shallow politician, the assumption by some of his intimates that the President will consult with him on "strategy"; that his advice will have White House weight and that a blanket plan favored by Mr. Sullivan's "advisers" for a whole series of sensational vetoes, designed to knock the props from under the Republican program, already has been discussed considerably disturbs the more able men in the White House circle. This does not mean they are opposed to the use of the presidential veto—quite the contrary. It does mean that they are opposed to its use merely for political reasons. It does mean they do not want the President to use his veto to kill a bill just because it is a Republican bill, regardless of its merit or the attitude of the people toward it.

IN BRIEF, they want to veto to be used discriminatingly and clearly in the public interests. This contrasts with the politicians who want Mr. Truman to frustrate the Republicans in any way he can, prevent them from making a record, keep them from getting credit. The more broad-minded of Mr. Truman's friends think this indiscriminate use of the veto would be extremely short-sighted politics, which in the end would react against the President, destroy much of the strength and prestige which he has gained in recent months.

THESE, for example, are strongly in favor of his vetoing the Republican tax bill. Under existing conditions to reduce taxes by anything like as much as is proposed and before the size of the budget reduction is known is, they contend, indefensible and dangerous. The President, it is held, is bound to veto such a bill. It would be a dereliction in his duty to let it become law. The nation as a whole will sustain him, they believe, in refusing to sign which they are sure he will do. But this is a very different proposition from the other Republican bills will be laid on Mr. Truman's desk very shortly. One of these, as a matter of fact, is already there. It is the "portal-to-portal" bill, which nullifies the fantastic and incredible suits instituted against big and little industry by labor unions—and which even some of the unions concede are lopsided and unjustifiable. This bill was passed by a large majority, including many Democrats. Yet, Mr. Truman is now being pressed to veto it. It is reported and widely believed that he will do so.

IN addition, there is an increasing number of Democratic politicians who believe that Mr. Truman will follow a "portal-to-portal" disapproval (which might be passed over his veto) by vetoing Republican labor legislation, whether it comes to him as one large bill or in a number of small ones, on the grounds that the bill or bills are "too drastic," "infringe on the rights of labor," were passed in a "vindictive spirit," etc. In brief, he will use as an argument the adjectives and names which have been mouthed by the CIO outside spokesmen and their senatorial stooges from the start. Conceding that these predictions come from persons supposedly in close touch with the President, some whose loyalty to him is unquestioned refuse to believe them.

THEY reject the ideon these grounds—first, that such vetoes would be clearly inspired by political fear. They would indicate a degree of servility in Mr. Truman utterly incompatible with self-respect; second, it would be extremely stupid in Mr. Truman in that it would put him in direct contradiction to the will of the people generally. It could not get him the support of any voters not now with him and certainly would lose him the support of many who now incline his way. Even from the short-range political viewpoint the advantages of such vetoes would be exceedingly dubious.

FROM the long-range view, they would seem disastrous. Certainly, they would give the Republicans powerful additional arguments for their 1948 campaign, putting Mr. Truman and his party definitely on the defensive. It would seem a species of political imbecility which could not be sold Mr. Truman by anyone. A large part of his new strength with the people is due to the convention that since the election he no longer has to pretend to be the New Dealer (which he never was at heart) but can now be himself. If he reverts to the CIO alliance, it will mean that he is just too weak to throw off the left-wing influence. It would destroy a public confidence in him that could not be regained. In the past Mr. Truman has been charged by his enemies with being a second-grade politician without character or courage. A very different picture of him has been painted in recent months. An indiscriminate and political use of his veto power would lend substance to the first notion, make the latter one difficult to cherish.

Secretary of State Marshall was on record clearly with a crowning re-emphasis of the driving, even overwhelming, determination that that two years ago spelled a desolate finish for Adolf Hitler and the end of the Second World War in Europe.

The American statesman offered to let the Russians have what they want—reparations out of current German production.

But his concession was based upon one major, unalterable stipulation.

The Soviet Union must sign up with the three western powers in an ironclad treaty to stand fast for forty years and designed for the sole purpose of preventing any rebirth of German militarism and aggression.

Marshall is not necessarily a single-minded man.

He always has had many advisers, both as chief of staff of the United States Army and as secretary of state.

Willing To Revise Strategy
He has been willing to revise broad strategy when advisable. He has never turned a deaf ear to suggestions, no matter how completely contrary to his own original ideas they may be.

But from the moment the United States was forced into the war against Germany, he dedicated himself and all his vast military experience and intelligence to the prospect that Adolf Hitler must be destroyed, and along with him the Nazi military machine that ruined Europe for uncounted years to come.

That Hitler managed to destroy himself before the American Third or First of Seventh or Ninth Army could set to him is inconceivable. Secretary Marshall in point of fact, probably is highly satisfied with the Fuehrer's fantastic suicide.

For never in recorded history has there been a more abject confession of complete and disgraceful defeat on the part of a once-great nation's fantastic suicide.

Deshon Tuesday

Hospitalized veterans at Deshon hospital spent an evening of fun and profit on Tuesday evening, when an indoor carnival was presented by Perry S. Gaston Post No. 343, American Legion.

Various games of skill and chance were provided for the veterans by local post members, and the winners were rewarded with some worthwhile prizes for their efforts. Everything was free, and the officers and men stated that it was one of the richest entertainments which has yet been given at the newly opened hospital.

Past Commander A. Lewis Conn was chairman of the evening's program, and the local delegation was headed by Conn and Commander E. Gene Schweinsberg.

Nude Body Of Woman Found In Hotel Room

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—(INS)—The nude body of an attractive woman was found in a Pittsburgh hotel room last night, police said.

Deputy Corner Fred Wiehagen said the body of Rita M. Preissler, 25, of Pittsburgh, was discovered by a hotel official when a maid reported she couldn't enter the room.

Wiehagen said the woman had swallowed poison and had been dead about 12 hours. Miss Preissler's brother, Francis, identified the body and told police he knew of no motive for suicide.

Police said she registered in the hotel Monday as "Marion Toth, Akron, O." An empty brief case and her clothing were found in the room.

Police said Miss Preissler had worked several years as secretary of the AFL Bill Posters Union in Pittsburgh.

Butler Farm Home Destroyed By Fire

BUTLER, April 2.—(INS)—Fire which spread from a first floor stove destroyed the two-story farm building owned by Farrell S. Hoch of this city Tuesday. Damage was set at $10,000.

Robert L. Gahagan, ex-city policeman said that he was cleaning the home in preparation for planned work and had started a fire in the downstairs stove to clean up some trash. In 10 minutes flames were shooting through the house. The fire was beyond control when firemen arrived.

Talk By Attorney Orville
Brown Will Feature

Commander Carl E. Turner of the Consistory Legion of Honor announces that an interesting program has been prepared for the meeting Thursday evening, which will take place in the east dining room.

Attorney Orville Brown, a member of the Legion of Honor, will speak on his visit to Australia and travels in the southwest Pacific, and the United States navy film, "Operation Crossroads," showing what took place when the atomic bombs were dropped in the Pacific, which will be presented along with a picture on the taking of Iwo Jima.

Lunch will follow the program of the evening.

ANNOUNCING ENGAGEMENT
"Please tell me the proper way to announce my daughter's engagement. I have tentatively planned to give a tea on Sunday afternoon when both men and women may attend, and have small cards with the announcement written on them. Is this proper? Should my daughter pour? Any suggestions from you will be greatly appreciated."

Answer: A tea is ideal for announcing an engagement. Actually no general verbal announcement is necessary, nor are announcement cards essential. The bride-to-be wearing her ring may stand beside her fiancé to greet her guests and introduce him as her fiancé.

This is sufficient announcement. If you desire something more elaborate, you may let your imagination soar. You may, as suggested, have plain cards or merely the engaged pair's visiting cards placed in envelopes to fit and presented to each guest. Nothing need be written on them. Their presence together will be sufficient to indicate an engagement.

Here is a novel idea for a tea-announcement: Pass to your women guests a tray or basket with tiny bouquets, each with a small envelope attached in which are visiting cards of the engaged pair or the plain white cards you suggest.

A newspaper announcement of the engagement a day or so before your tea will obviate the necessity of any additional announcement. The news will by that time be out and friends will gather to offer their good wishes to the couple.

Your daughter should not pour, nor should you. This duty should be assumed, preferably by a friend—someone not a member of the household. At a dinner or party, the announcement is usually made by the bride's father who offers a toast to the couple.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

negotiations under way at Moscow that Marshall is willing to give way on minor points of protocol and even is willing to take a few "calculated risks" if the main object is achieved.

He stands adamant, for example, on any proposals to partition Germany into eastern and western states. His argument is simple enough for a backwoods schoolroom. If there are two Germanies, each will have to be given exterior aid. There will be double trouble instead of a single headache, and at some future time the two divisions might be able to merge into a revitalized menace.

Marshall's singleness of purpose with regard to preventing a return of German militarism is more of a religion than an obsession.

As over-all strategic planner during the war, he had to plot the broad gauge of battle and trust to his field commanders to keep losses to a minimum. Each American boy killed or wounded was a stab to his fine conscience. He is determined that whatever else the future may hold, German guns never again will take a khaki line of youngsters yanked from schools, homes, farms and factories to risk their lives in undoing a Prussian war-lord.

It is estimated that U. S. plants will turn out enough floor and wall tile in 1947 to cover 850 average square city blocks.

WEDDING IN VALLEY OF INTEREST HERE

At a beautiful candlelight service in the River View Evangelical church of Beaver Falls, Tuesday evening, Miss Dolores Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Klein of 63 River View avenue, Beaver Falls, became the bride of J. Dean Sterrett of College Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sterrett of College Hill. A cross of flowers and two tiers of candles decorated the altar. Rev. C. H. Stang performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. C. W. McMillan, pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian church of College Hill. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white marquisette, her veil fell from a crown headdress and she carried a white Bible marked with an orchid. Her attendants were her sister, Mrs. F. D. McPheeters of this city, who as matron of honor, wore a gown of pale green marquisette, and Mrs. Richard Veitch and Miss Dorothy Ebersberger, both of Beaver Falls, bridesmaids, who wore gowns of orchid marquisette. All of the attendants wore marquisette head-dresses to match their gowns and carried white Testaments and sweet peas. Miss Kay McPheeters as flower girl wore a gown of white orchid fashioned like the bride's and carried sweet peas.

Charles Sterrett was his brother's best man and ushers were Clifford Hood, Richard Matheny and J. D. Klein, all of Beaver Falls. Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom received in the Community House of the church. Later the newlyweds left on a motor trip and on their return will be at home on 34th street, College Hill.

Mrs. Sterrett is a supervisor for the Bell Telephone company in Beaver Falls and Mr. Sterrett attends Geneva college.

From here a number of guests attended the wedding.

Service Guild Meets

Wesleyan Service Guild of the Croton Methodist church held the regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Wilson, 1030 Dewey avenue.

The business meeting opened by prayer led by Mrs. Lee McGaffie after which much discussion ensued on plans that were being laid for the Tom Brennan show to be put on by the guild.

At the close of the evening a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Dorothy Wilson, assisted by Mrs. Lee McGaffie.

The next meeting will be on May 6 at the home of Mrs. Harold Williams, 303 Vine street.

Humble-Be Class

Regular meeting of the Humble-Be class took place in the home of Miss Rhoda Mary Ezzell, Camden avenue, Tuesday evening, when Donald Leasure, as the speaker, had as his subject "The Easter Story". After business and the program there was a social hour during which a lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. C. Ezzell.

Next meeting will be April 15 in the home of Donald Leasure.

BRIDE-ELECT GIVEN SHOWER CARD PARTY

Another in a series of pre-nuptial showers that have been given for Miss Aleta Montgomery since announcement of plans for her wedding on April 17 to Norman Peck, of Girard, O., was the shower and card party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Donald M. Hanna at her home in Willow Grove.

Tables of 500 were in play during the evening and prizes were presented to Mrs. T. J. Spiers, Mrs. Thomas McCormick, and Mrs. Wayne Thompson.

A shower of gifts of a miscellaneous nature was presented to the bride-elect.

Late in the evening a lunch was served with Mrs. Wayne Thompson assisting the hostess.

OPTI-MRS. CLUB APRIL SESSION

Opti-Mrs. club was entertained Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Otto Pearsall, of Edgewood avenue.

The group decided to give a campaign to a New Castle girl, Mrs. Arthur Graham, Mrs. Albert Garren and Mrs. Harold Boak were appointed as the nominating committee.

Various games were enjoyed. Later a tempting repast was served at a table beautifully appointed with gladioli and pastel-hued tapers.

Election of officers will take place Tuesday evening, May 6, when Mrs. William DeCarbo will be hostess at The Castleton.

Husbands were guests Saturday evening, when the Opti-Mrs. club was received in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fullerton, of Hazlecroft avenue.

A treasure hunt, directed by Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Love and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rasey, was a feature. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Montgomery and Otto Pearsall were awarded trophies. Other games were also enjoyed. Mr. Pearsall pleased with several piano selections.

Musical recordings were played during the serving of a tasty buffet lunch.

Hear Threat Of Miners To Stay Away From Mines

Miners May Remain Away From Work In 'Unsafe' Mines Is Threat Being Heard

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—(INS)—Soft coal miners across the nation today clamored for safer working conditions and threatened that many of the pits they termed "unsafe" would remain idle when the union's week of mourning ends Saturday.

Their demands came as congress made plans to push an investigation of mine operations under federal control.

The demands were made by UMW officials and rank-and-file miners alike as most of the nation's 400,000 diggers and their families attended special memorial services for the 111 victims who died in the Wamac, Ill., explosion last week.

In most instances union leaders sounded the alarm for improved safety measures and working conditions for members.

Vice President Adolph Pacifico, of UMW District Six, said at Dillonvale, Ohio:

"I will instruct safety committees of each union local to withdraw workers from any mine they deem unsafe until satisfactory adjustments are made."

In Illinois, Hugh White, president of the Illinois district, said UMW members will return to work Monday only if the pits are considered safe.

A coal mine operator in western Pennsylvania, who asked that his name be withheld, dealt the operators a severe blow.

Methodist Churches Will Open Two-Day Pre-Easter Series

Methodist churches of New Castle and vicinity announce the observance of Maundy Thursday and Good Friday will again be held this year as a group project.

The observance of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be held in the various Methodist churches on Thursday evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock. In many churches this will be a silent service to which the worshippers come as they desire. Epworth church and the Mahoningtown church will mark with candlelight.

A union Methodist Good Friday service will be held on Friday evening in the First Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock. The Methodist ministers of the vicinity will participate in the conduct of the worship service. Dr. Lucius H. Bugbee of Bemus Point, N. Y., will be the preacher of the evening and will speak on the theme "The Sacrificial Bread."

Dr. Bugbee was for many years editor of the church school publications of the Methodist church and has held some of the larger pastorates in the denomination. His son, Rev. Warren A. Bugbee, pastor of the Mahoning Methodist church, will be in charge of the service.

Russian, Slav Defiance Blocks Probe On Greece

BELGRADE, April 2.—(INS)—Soviet and Yugoslav defiance blocked efforts by Mark F. Ethridge in Belgrade today to determine whether Yugoslavia has any official role in the separatist movement for Greek Macedonia.

Ethridge, U.S. member of the United Nations Commission studying Greek border troubles, demanded to know the significance of speeches by Premier Tito and Belgrade newspaper articles calling for the annexation of Greek Macedonia to Yugoslavia.

Soviet Delegate A.A. Lavrishev insisted the subject was outside the competence of the commission, and attacked western nations for insulating the "peace-loving" countries of Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania.

Yugoslav Liaison Officer Josip Djerdja was advised by the Soviet delegate to reject all inquiries regarding Tito's foreign policy.

When Ethridge advised Djerdja to disregard the counsel, the officer replied:

"Yugoslavia is an independent nation. It does not take advice."

Asphalt Plant In New Jersey Ripped By Blast

CAMDEN, N. J., April 2.—(INS)—A tremendous explosion ripped the roof of the Bitucote Products company asphalt plant in Camden today and caused a fire which destroyed the building.

Plant Manager L. P. Shropshire, who was in the building with three employees at the time, said the blast occurred in a 5000-gallon tank of asphalt which "boiled over."

"The explosion tore the roof off the building and blew out the door, which afforded us a means of escape with no injuries," he said. "I still don't see why we weren't blown out with the door."

Fire companies battled the flames, hampered by dense acrid smoke caused by the burning asphalt, and finally brought them under control within an hour, although the building was destroyed, according to Shropshire.

The plant manager said the cause of the explosion was unknown.

Prisoners Battle After Sentence

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 2.—(INS)—Two convicted alleged used-car racketeers today were in solitary confinement in Fayette county jail after staging a violent fist fight when they were sentenced to penitentiary terms on charges of theft and resale of automobiles.

Police said John Holly and John Moorman exchanged blows inside the prison bullpen as they were led back to jail to await transfer to Western penitentiary. Prior to their sentencing both men blamed each other for the theft and resale of cars.

Holly was sentenced to six to 15 years on three charges and Moorman two to five years. A third man, Wilbur Ellis, who entered a plea of dealing in second-hand cars, was sentenced to two to five years.

Approve Court Injunctions For Certain Disputes

House Labor Committee Okays Method To Halt Strikes Affecting Welfare Of Nation

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—The House labor committee today approved a bill which would authorize use of court injunctions in labor disputes involving communications, public utilities or transportation, as threats of a nationwide telephone strike next Monday increased.

The committee's action came as the government launched a new attempt to avert the walkout set for six a. m. (EST) Monday by the National Federation of Telephone Workers.

At the same time the telephone union demanded a congressional investigation of the Bell System's labor policies and declared its willingness to bargain with the industry "at any level."

Rep. Hartley (R) N. J., labor committee chairman, said he would ask rules committee permission to take the injunction bill to the House floor "as soon as possible."

But he admitted that a vote before the strike deadline was improbable.

The committee approved the measure introduced by Hartley by a 16-3 vote. Two Democrats joined 14 Republicans in supporting the measure, and three Democrats opposed it.

Shortly before the committee acted, U. S. Conciliation Director Edgar L. Warren summoned Joseph A. Bieme, president of the NFW, into conference in an effort to avert the strike.

WILMINGTON, N. C.—(INS)—Moonshine "likers" flow freely in the swamp country of New Hanover county, N. C. There's more moonshine manufactured now than at any time since pre-war days. Chief Earl S. Bland, of the County Alcohol Beverage Control is certain. Raids are keeping the agents busy.

Pleads Guilty To Killing Of Woman With His Machine

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—(INS)—The trial of John Caruso on a charge of killing a woman with his car in an alleged attempt to run down his wife took a surprise turn today when he pleaded guilty to a general charge of homicide.

Judge Harry S. McDevitt immediately adjudged him guilty of murder in the second degree, which carries a penalty of 10 to 20 years imprisonment, and ordered him held pending sentence.

The victim was Miss Frances Diamond, 21, who was walking with his 22-year-old wife Mary at the time of the killing. McDevitt also held Caruso's wife under $1,000 bail on a perjury charge.

Mrs. Caruso caused the prosecuting attorney to plead "surprise" earlier when she denied having given him a statement that her husband had chased her into the house following the killing and threatened her and her family with a knife.

Truman Postpones Mississippi Trip

President Elects To Stay In Washington Because Of International Situation

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—The White House announced today cancellation of President Truman's proposed trip to Cleveland, Miss., April 8.

The president was to have addressed a meeting of the Delta Council.

White House Secretary Charles G. Ross said the president has cancelled the trip because of the necessity of remaining in Washington. Ross said Mr. Truman desired to remain in the capital both because of the "international situation" and the pressure of legislation in the Congress.

Local Airman On Survey Flight To Secure AAF Data

FAIRFIELD-SUISUN, A. A. B.—Fairfield, Calif., Apr. 2.—Lieutenant S. Yankura, New Castle, Pa., has arrived in Tokyo, Japan, as a crew member with Brigadier General Archie J. Old, Jr., completing the first half of an air transport command survey flight across the icy waters of the North Pacific ocean.

The survey flights are being made by the ATC's Eastern Pacific Wing, commanded by General Old, to determine weather and operational conditions on the northern great circle route between Anchorage, Alaska, to Tokyo, via Adak, mid-point on the Aleutian chain.

Lt. Yankura, a navigator, will return to Fairfield, Calif., via Adak and Anchorage within the next week, completing the second half of this first survey flight.

The route to Tokyo, Japan, via Anchorage and Adak, is approximately 2,000 miles shorter than the route regularly flown by the ATC's Pacific division, which presently operates via Hickam Field, Hawaii, Kwajalein Island, Guam and Iwo Jima to Tokyo.

SUPERNONIC PROBLEMS

NEW ORLEANS.—(INS)—The adaptability of the human body organisms to changes in atmospheric pressure is the biggest problem confronting scientists today in the development of supersonic aircraft. That was the opinion expressed by Dr. Rains Wallace, professor of psychology at Tulane university, Dr. Wallace, who conducted research for the Army Air Forces during the war, said new aircraft must be adjusted to man's relatively slow reaction time.

New Eligibility For Joining Navy Inactive Reserves

End Of Draft Changes Policy; Announce 105 Have Joined Here Since January 1

All male civilians between the ages of 17 and 39 inclusive, as well as all veterans of World War II are now eligible for enrollment in the inactive reserve corps of the navy under liberalized rules, it was announced today at the local sub-station.

Previously, civilians between the ages of 18 and 39 were not eligible for the naval reserve because of their being subject to draft registration.

Under the inactive reserve program, enrollees retain their civilian status and may resign at any time. But, if they wish, they may participate in reserve training programs and annual cruises aboard modern men-of-war. They may also partake of weekly training periods with pay.

Veterans May Join
Veterans of all branches of the service, who join the navy reserves, retain their previous rating, while some specialized army and marine personnel may transfer to the corps at their corresponding army or marine rate. Physical examinations are not required and longevity accumulates while a member.

Since the first of the year 105 persons of the county have signed with the reserve at the New Castle station. March was the heaviest month, 70 being enrolled.

Witness Program At County Home

Chaplain's Committee In Charge Of Inspirational Program Presented Home Residents

Tuesday evening the chaplain's committee of the Lawrence county home spread Easter cheer to the residents of the home by presenting a special program, after which gifts and a treat were distributed to the members of the home.

The program opened in the chapel with a musical program participated in by members of the Sulmonetti evangelistic party. Participating were Rev. and Mrs. Sulmonetti, Ethna and Earl Sulmonetti, Emma Pearl and a trio from the home composed of Misses Ruth Houk, Helen Houk and Carrie Mechleng. Easter greetings were brought by Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine. Vocal selections by Mrs. Flossie Weller, Mrs. McIlvaine, prayer and group singing closed the program.

Refreshments were served not only to those in the chapel, but the patients in the men's and women's wards of the home hospital.

Special guests were County Comptroller Andy Dadds and County Commissioner Joseph Travers. Rev. Sulmonetti has been chaplain of the home for the past eight years and has been untiring in his service. The committee helping to make the program a success included Mrs. Joel McKee, Mrs. Jesse N. Kerr, Mrs. David Nesbit and Mrs. Alex W. Hanna, who assisted in distributing gifts to the group.

Two Are Injured In Auto Accident In College Town

NEW WILMINGTON, April 2.—Andrew Kondas of 1262 Ravine street, Munhall, and Allen London of Punxsutawney, both Westminster college students, are resting at their homes today following an automobile accident in New Wilmington Tuesday in which both received minor injuries.

The accident occurred about 1:30 a. m. as the two men were returning together from Youngstown, where they both worked the four p. m. to midnight shift.

London, who was driving fell asleep, it is believed, and the car jumped the curb. It sheared off a telephone pole and uprooted a tree before coming to a stop in front of the house of David Boyd, 555 Neshannock avenue.

Kondas was cut about the chin and had three front teeth knocked out. London, who was asleep at the time of the accident, was shaken and bruised about the head. Both were given medical treatment and have been taken to their homes. The Dodge car in which they were traveling was damaged badly.

CAR EXPORT FIGURES
DETROIT.—(INS)—Rumors are still roaming with exaggerated figures on the number of automobiles being shipped to other countries. Several check-ups on these reports bring the same answer: One car in 20, or five per cent of passenger cars, are being exported.

CHICKENS DROP

ALBANY, N. Y.—(INS)—The January 1, 1947, inventory of all chickens on New York farms amounted to 15,333,000 birds, a drop of 11 per cent during 1946, although two per cent above the 10-year (1936-45) average for this date. Peak of the war period was 1944 when 18,591,000 chickens were on hand at the beginning of the year, according to a federal-state report issued by the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

Mobile X-Ray Unit Workings Shown To Wilmington Club

NEW WILMINGTON, April 2.—Mrs. Joseph B. Nomen, chairman of the Mercer County Tuberculosis society, explained the workings of the Mobile X-ray unit at the regular meeting of Kiwanis, Monday night at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Nomen stated that more than 7,000 residents of Mercer county had been examined. This included all employees of 36 industries.

Miss Mary Howley, chairman of the Lawrence County society, also spoke briefly concerning the work in her county.

Sidney Cleal, representing the Parent Teachers association asked the cooperation of the Kiwanians in the drive for instruments for the high school band.

The speakers were introduced by Claire Scott and group singing was led by Russell Sewall.

Stag Night To Be Held By Consistory

Coach Alvin N. 'Bo' McMillin Will Be Speaker At Entertainment And Fish Fry

Members of the Valley of New Castle Consistory and their blue lodge friends, are looking forward to the annual stag party planned for Friday evening, April 11, at 8 o'clock in The Cathedral.

Alvin N. 'Bo' McMillin, football coach at Indiana University, and former mentor at Geneva college, following a sensational career at little Center college, who was rated the "Coach of the year," in 1945 will be the speaker.

There will be movie sport shorts from 7:30 on while the crowd gathers, and there will also be entertainment in the dining room during the fish fry, which will be a part of the evening's entertainment.

Marriage Of Blind Couple Revealed

CINCINNATI, O., April 2.—(INS)—Marriage of a blind couple, 29-year-old Florence Frutchev of Columbus and Charles Owens, 48, formerly of Cincinnati, was disclosed today by the man's Cincinnati sister-in-law after they had been missing for over 24 hours.

Mrs. Katie L. Owens said that she had received a telephone call from Owens saying that he and Miss Frutchev were married yesterday in Indianapolis. He added that they were going to Pittsburgh, where her sister lives.

The couple disappeared Monday after Owens had come to Columbus for a three-day visit from his former Cincinnati home. They were last seen boarding a westbound train at Columbus' Union station with a seeing-eye dog.

The marriage climaxed a baffling correspondence of three weeks.

No Story Hour At Library Thursday

Two Senators In State Would Lift Income Tax Ban

HARRISBURG, April 2.—(INS)—Elimination of the 33-year-old constitutional ban on graduated income taxes in Pennsylvania was proposed today by two senators seeking a "permanent solution to the school financing problem".

Republicans Fred P. Hare, Jr., of Somerset, and Paul L. Wagner, of Schuylkill, sponsored a constitutional amendment which would rip out the section of flat taxation which has been upheld by the state supreme court.

Scaled income levies, the sponsors contended, would open the door to a new source of revenue desperately needed to finance the huge educational program, embracing teachers salary increases, which has burdened the commonwealth for years.

The Hare-Wagner proposal pointed up interest in the administration's proposed $133,000,000 emergency tax program which was awaiting a public hearing in the Senate April 9.

See Continuance Of Franco's Power

By H. EDWARD KNOBLAUGH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MADRID, April 2.—The continuance in power of Spain's Generalissimo Francisco Franco for as long as he may choose was seen assured by the proclamation of succession which he delivered to the Spanish Parliament.

Although many representative Spaniards questioned by International News Service felt it is yet too early to assay Franco's measure, they seemed unanimous in the belief that the status quo in Spain will not be interrupted in the immediate future.

Unusual Device

They regarded his proclamation as one of the most unusual devices yet conceived by the "Caudillo" in his long succession of shrewd maneuvers which have enabled him to maintain control of Spain through eight difficult years.

While the move opened the way toward restoration of the monarchy, Franco at the same time assured continuation of his policies. He made clear to the world that he intended, at least indirectly, to help pick his successor.

Although the project revealed by Franco calls for establishment of a council of the realm and a regency, it contained a carefully worded provision by which he would be replaced only in the event of his death or disability.

This will enable Franco to retire at any time he may desire to claim disability. But at the same time it insures his continuance until he feels the moment is propitious to step down.

Withholds Full Approval

While making a gesture to Monarchists, Franco at the same time withheld full approval of their most popular candidate, Don Juan.

The bill to the Cortes specifies that when the time arrives to pick a successor "a person of royal blood who may have the best qualifications established under law" will be called.

The careful avoidance of mentioning Don Juan was believed by some as a result of recent press interviews granted by the pretender in Lisbon. There he was quoted as saying that he would never return to Spain while Franco is in power.

Although the relations between Franco and Don Juan seem to have improved considerably in the past year, leading Monarchists still point to several wide divergencies of views of the two on the question of policy.

Principal Disagreements

One of the principal disagreements of the two involves the amnesty of political prisoners. The pretender a long time ago stipulated that amnesty was one of the prime conditions for restoration of normalcy to Spain.

Francisco is known to be convinced that the release of all who were declared guilty of political crimes at present would precipitate a series of disorders and force him to resort to repressive measures. He feels that such action would produce unfavorable reaction not only abroad but also at home.

Although Spain's capital city was raised to a high pitch of excitement in the hours preceding the address in which Franco announced his plan, a strange quiet settled down over Madrid after the delivery.

Morning newspapers gave splash play to the proclamation and printed large pictures of Franco.

Editorials were devoted principally to recollection of the bloodshed produced during the civil war—which ended eight years ago today—and to expressions of confidence that the new status of the country would guarantee peace.

The inheritance of the animal, climate, type of feeding and care all influence the quality of leather that can be made from a skin.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

HEAVY ROCKS
HOLD DOWN THE ROOTS OF THE FLIMSY BAMBOO HOUSES OF JAPANESE FISHERFOLK

IN THE OPEN

There is a great deal of truth in the old saying that it is indeed an ill wind which blows nobody good. For several weeks now I have been moping in my tent, bemoaning the fact that the beautiful valley below the house is being turned into a quagmire by tremendous shovels, preparatory to stripping out the coal beds which lie close beneath the surface. I have come to know and love this valley, which is rich in all sorts of unusual plant life and in which I have encountered a great variety of our shy birds.

Now that the dells and thickets and old fields in the valley floor will soon become a limbo of worthless shale, I have been forced to track down new hiking grounds where I may continue my pleasant associations with the wildlifers of our wayside trails. On one of these prospecting trips I discovered a large station of the rare camassia, the quagmire of the Indians, or wild hyacinth. Another journey into unknown territory disclosed the valley of the talking brook, which promises to be one of the most interesting spots in my itinerary.

Roadway Sticky

During the weekend I planned to walk down our home valley as far as the swinging bridge to see at first hand just how much of the work of destruction has been completed. When the time came I found I had no heart for the journey and loaded up the family car to see if the snow trilliums were blooming on the bank some two miles distant. We found the country roadway somewhat sticky in spots, but made it safely to a parking place just across the stream from the thicket where these pigmy trilliums grow.

The snow trillium is a rare little fellow, blooming in March and April even before the Spring beauty and the hepatica show their dainty blossoms. Few people know this flower, partly because it is quite rare and because it has bloomed and gone before the average hiker gets out.

Christmas Fern

Never have we encountered such colonies of Christmas fern as are at home in the wooded banks in this secluded vale which we immediately named the Valley of the Christmas Fern. Great matted clusters of this evergreen fern, which is my favorite, completely covered large areas. There are probably a great many other fern varieties in this same area, which has a "ferny" look. I have a feeling that we will make many interesting discoveries in this new bit of woodland, which we probably would never have explored if the coal strippers had not moved into our home valley.

We were clambering over the rocks in the stream bed, a half mile or so back in this new country when we came across a felled tree lying across the creek. The saw cuts were clearly visible where the cavity had been opened and there were still evidences of the old comb inside the hollow section. A short way above this we found a bubbling spring emerging directly between the roots of a tall ash tree and racing a few feet a fall gracefully over a rock ledge into the main brook.

held one of the pellets of bones and another flat stone in the stream bed other indigestible materials which had been disgorged there by an owl.

When returning to the car we came across two of the five striking scarlet cups, fungi, growing on a rotting stick and pushing their glowing cups up through the dead leaves. So far the ill wind has brought us much good hunting in far fields. If our luck is going to hold this way, I hope its keeps right on blowing.

Film 'Operation Cross-Roads' Shown To Lions Tuesday

Navy Films Taken At Scene Of Atomic Blast Thrill Members Of Club At Luncheon

New Castle Lions club members had the honor of being the first local service club to see the official U. S. Navy films taken at Bikini atoll showing the terrific force of the two atomic blasts which were set off there last summer under what was known as "Operation Crossroads".

The preparations incident to the dropping of the bomb and what happened afterwards are shown in the film, which is being presented under the auspices of the Greater New Castle association through the courtesy of the U. S. Navy Recruiting office here.

In addition to the film "Operation Crossroads", a film showing the battle for Iwo Jima was also presented, the two films taking approximately an hour.

The picture was shown by Chief Motor Machinists Mate Kirk Heilman and Chief Gunners Mate O. J. C. Johnson of the New Castle Navy Recruiting office.

Third U. P. Leads In Attendance

East Side Bible School Reports 591 In Classes Sunday, March 30

Once again the Third United Presbyterian Bible school had the largest attendance in the county, with their record showing a peak attendance of 591 for Sunday, March 30.

Interest is keen as the contest draws rapidly toward the close, one more week remaining until the final report will show just which classes had the best averages for the campaign. There is a very small margin in some cases, and it is hard to say at this point just who will be victorious.

Group, percentage and averages for the various classes and departments are shown below:

Beginners department, 58.7; 50.6. Primary department, 67.4; 68.6. Junior department, 77.0; 76.0. Intermediate-Jr. Young People, 74.6; 66.3.

Senior Young People, 91.0; 65.5. Adult department, 72.5; 66.5. Y. L. B. class, 66.0; 64.0. Men's Bible class, 49.3; 52.0. W. W. M. G. class, 214.2; 136.5. Open Door class, 138.2; 138.2. Royal Band class, 78.1; 78.6.

Truth Seekers class, 88.2; 85.4. Queen Esther class, 69.2; 76.5. S. B. Copeland class, 80.4; 70.7. M. H. class, 100.0; 85.9. True Blue class, 159.3; 122.6.

Women's Bible class, 50.0; 73.2. A. J. Minick class, 71.4; 45.9. Teacher Training, 50.0; 34.7. Teachers and Officers, 89.4; 87.4.

There were more than 70 children in junior church which is in charge of Mrs. Horace Allen and her committee. A sacred moving picture was shown for the group, and another program of the same type has been planned for the coming Sunday.

In the assembly period for devotions, which is held for the entire school in the main auditorium on the last Sunday of each month, the newly formed Bible school orchestra made its initial appearance and played several selections. This group is under the direction of Roy Strobel and while not large in number shows much promise of becoming a very fine addition to the school.

Wolves Club Has
Speakers-Meeting

Father-Son Banquet Scheduled For Tuesday, April 15, At New Castle Country Club

First-hand information on conditions in war-torn Italy were given to members of the Wolves club, Tuesday evening, at the regular dinner-meeting held at The Castle, by Adolph Budellazze, a native of New Castle. Mr. Budellazze lived in Italy since he was eleven years of age, and recently returned to this country.

In his address, Mr. Budellazze confirmed reports of Italy's destitute state, and deplorable conditions now experienced by the people in that country, and of the scarcity of food and bare essentials of living. He urged all to assist any relatives in that country, for the need is great. Chief petty officer, John P. Burrell, of U. S. Navy Recruiting office, was in charge of the showing of a film on atomic energy in action. He also showed U. S. Army films during the capturing of strategic islands in the Pacific area.

Paul Failla, program chairman introduced the speakers, Angelo Prediani, president presided.

Announcement was made by Joseph Frenkel, campaign chairman of American relief for Italy, that to date, $2,826.06 has been received and more pledged to add to this total. Bowling was enjoyed at the close of the session.

On April 15, a father-son banquet will be held at the New Castle Country Club.

Jeane Myers In Senior Recital

Program Presented Tuesday Evening In Wallace Memorial Chapel, New Wilmington

In the chapel of Westminster college Tuesday evening at 8:15, Miss Jeane Myers, soprano, presented her senior recital under the sponsorship of the Artist Course.

Miss Myers chose two Brahms works for her first group. In the second Respighi, Bizet and Verdi compositions were presented.

In her third group, chosen from among contemporary compositions was on particularly well received and outstanding, "To One in Paradise", Edgar Allen Poe's poem set to music by Edwin Good and dedicated to Miss Myers.

Mr. Good was accompanist and he and Miss Dorothy Haas appeared on the program in two duo-piano selections, one Handel-Klein's "Fifth Organ Concerto in F" and the other a Mozart-Safer suite.

Ushers were Miss Ann Crill, Miss Audrey Duerr, William McClelland and Everett Smith.

Following the recital there was a reception at the Conservatory given by the Westminster Singers.

Football Fixer's
Helpers Sentenced

NEW YORK, April 2.—(INS)—Three Broadway gamblers who were convicted March 8 of aiding Alvin J. Paris in attempting to fix last December's pro football championship game were sentenced today to long prison terms.

Judge Saul S. Streit handed down the following sentences:

Harvey Stemmer—five to 10 years; David (Pete) Krakauer—five to 10 years; Jerome Zarowitz—indefinite term up to three years in the penitentiary.

Health Tests
Are Under Way

Persons engaged in the handling of beverages and foodstuffs in the city are being given a health examination by Dr. W. A. Womer, city health physician, at city hall. Cards for the past six months expired March 1, hence all people engaged in such violations are required to take another test. A complete check is being made by Sanitary Police-man George Rigby.

Committee On Inspection Of Mine Disaster

Illinois Governor Green Announces
Resignation Of State Mines
Director

WAMAC, Ill., April 2.—(INS)—A seven-man governor's committee inspected the Centralia Coal Co.'s mine No. 5 today as it continued investigation of the Wamac disaster which killed 111 men March 25.

Committeemen allowed one newsman chosen by lottery to accompany them through the explosion-torn pit.

The group planned to spend the entire day in the mine, concentrating on sections worst damaged by the blast.

These were "entries and rooms" located about a mile and a quarter from the bottom of the 540-foot shaft.

Gov. Dwight Green highlighted the first day of the probe yesterday when he visited committee headquarters at nearby Centralia and announced the resignation of Robert Medill as state director of mines and minerals.

Green said Medill's resignation was "for the good of the service."

CONFIRMATION OF LILLIENTHAL UNDER
SEN. BYRD'S FIRE

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—Sen. Byrd (D) Va., charged today that confirmation of David Lillienthal as atomic energy commission chairman would be a "gamble with the future of America."

Byrd, in an address to the senate, asserted that the nominee had consistently "shown contempt for any control by the representatives elected by the people," adding:

"Evasion or breach of legislative controls at this stage of atomic energy development would be treasonable, and a man with a tendency to resist such controls should not be entrusted with the tremendous responsibilities of this position."

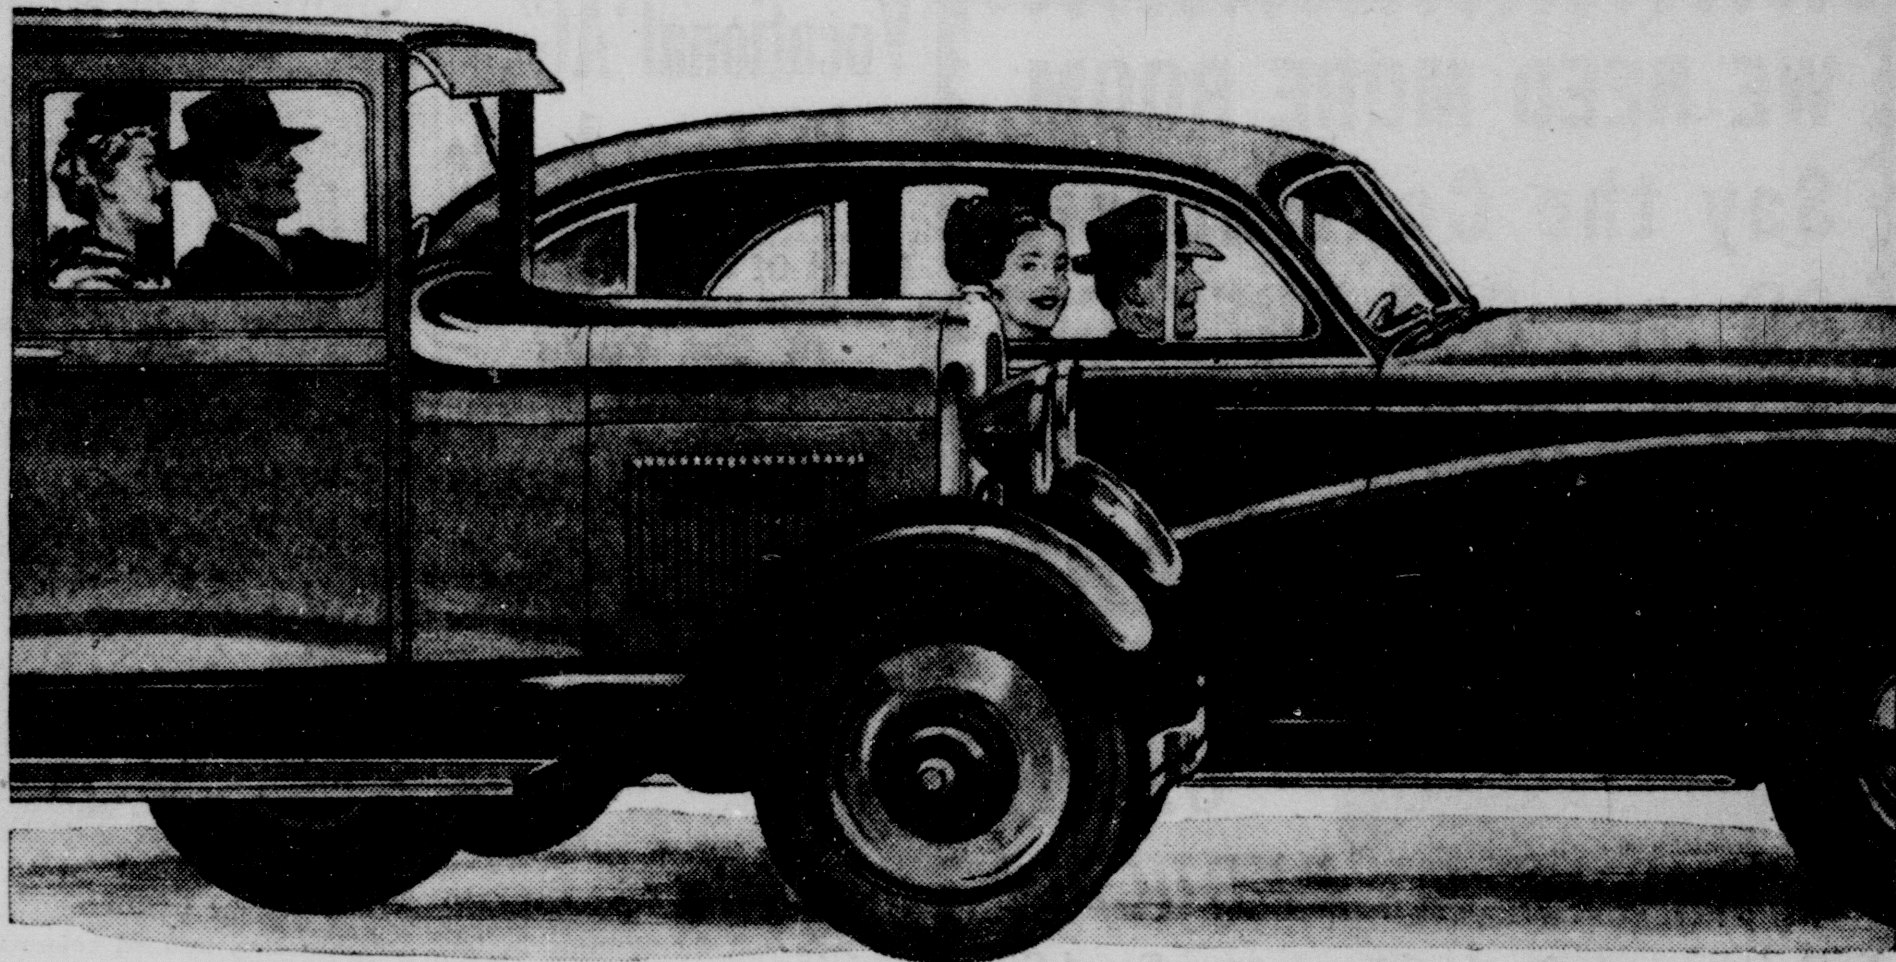

Byrd accused Lillienthal of having "a tolerance toward communism."

In this situation, he said, such attitude is "just as dangerous as if he was an avowed apostle of communism."

Byrd declared that no man should hold the chairmanship of the atomic commission unless he felt "a passionate hatred" of the trend toward a communistic state.

GREEKS STRUGGLE TO FIND MEANS OF
FRESH STABILITY

ATHENS, April 2.—(INS)—The Greek nation struggled to find a means of fresh stability today after a dramatic call from King Paul I for united efforts in behalf of independence and freedom.

While a national day of mourning was held for the late King George II who died suddenly of a heart ailment yesterday, there were no immediate signs of further upsets in Greece's troubled situation.

King Paul lost no time in appealing to his people to bury political differences and work together for the country's survival in the midst of trial and tribulation.

HALT SALES BELOW COST

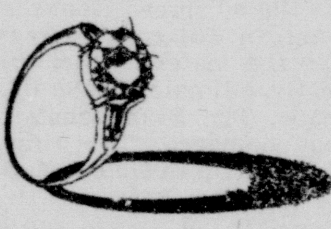

HARRISBURG, April 2.—(INS)—A measure to prohibit sales of cigarettes below cost was introduced today in the House.

Republican Reps. Adam T. Bower and William L. Kemp, of Northumberland, co-sponsored the bill designed to protect and stabilize tax collections. The measure would provide $500 fines for violators.

Report Of Supervisor James
C. Fink, Shows Nice Profit For Youths Engaged

THREE HUNDRED YOUTHS ENGAGED

In his annual report to the Department of Public Instruction, Vocational Agriculture Supervisor James C. Fink reveals that 361 projects were planned by 298 students in the rural schools of Lawrence, Beaver and Butler counties, during the past school year, of which 315 were completed.

This netted the students a profit of $29,006.10 in cash, which with the labor charged by them, brought them $33,630.93.

Each student is asked to engage in some particular project during the year, and the students in the agricultural courses in the three counties took part in a wide variety of farm activities.

Fourteen engaged in raising steers, which netted this group $2,819.16. Three students had 13 colonies of bees, which brought them a return of $150.40. Thirty-six completed projects raising corn, farming 113 acres, which netted those engaged a profit of $6,251.11, the most profitable venture of all. They raised 3,551 dozen ears of sweet corn.

Other Ventures
Poultry raising was the next most profitable, 38 completing these projects, and raising 7,270 chicks, 100 turkeys, 185 hens, and 150 cockrels. They marketed 7,853 pounds of dressed chicken, 4,831 pounds of turkey, 3,096 pullets and cockrels, and 4,827 dozen of eggs, which netted $5,078.32.

Garden and truck farming was the next most profitable, 81 completing these projects, which netted $4,529.51. They raised 156 bushels on snap beans, 25 bushels of dry beans, 40 hampers of beets, 6,106 pounds of cabbage, 20 hampers of carrots, 24 hampers of cauliflower, 115 bushels of cucumbers, 175 bushels of lettuce, 872 bunches of green onions, 23 bushels of dry onions, 168 hampers of green peas, 112 bushels of peppers, 2,231 pumpkins, 1,586 bushels of tomatoes, besides other vegetables.

Next in line was the raising of swine, 54 completing swine projects, netting a profit of $4,146.32.

Others engaged in dairy projects, 45 completing projects which netted $2,171.18.

Other projects included raising of potatoes, rabbits, sheep, fruits, etc.

There were 213 pupils who completed only one project, 33 completed two projects, and 15 completed three or more.

In all, there were 298 pupils who enrolled for projects among the students taking vocational agriculture, and 261 completed their projects, 37 failing for a variety of reasons.

Trial Of Fireman In Train Derailing Scheduled For Jury

BUTLER, Pa., April 2.—(INS)—The trial of Paul Vild, 31-year-old fireman accused of derailing a train last July 8, was expected to go to the jury today in Butler.

At yesterday's session, Vild admitted that he told police he threw a crow-bar into a frog switch, but contended he made the statement to escape further questioning. He testified that he was at an all-night party the night of the accident.

His testimony was supported by his niece, Mrs. Georgetta Ross, 22, who said Vild remained at the party all night and made phonograph records. She said Vild's voice was recorded on three recordings.

Fire Develops On Halifax Freighter

HALIFAX, N. S., April 2.—(INS)—Fire, caused by an explosion of a galley cook stove oil tank, broke out today aboard the Swedish-American freighter Svanholm at her berth in Halifax.

The first and second mates, trapped by smoke and flame in their cabins, were forced to climb through a 13-inch porthole to escape.

Explosion of the fuel tank caused oil to spill onto the hot stove, which then burst into flames. The fire kept the crew and Halifax firemen busy, as the oil spread from the galley along an adjacent passageway, trapping the mates in their cabins.

No early estimate of the damage was made. The Svanholm's cargo was not damaged. The ship was loaded for a trip to Göteborg, Sweden.

Observations About Aged Of County Made By Social Security Office Manager

OBSERVATIONS ABOUT AGED

Interesting observations on the probable effects of our ageing population were furnished today by Edward J. Sinder, manager of the New Castle social security field office.

"By 1970, 10 per cent of our total population will be age 65, or older, according to conservative estimates," Mr. Sinder said. "The number of our people who live to at least that age, is increasing rapidly. In 1890, only 4 per cent of all Americans reached 65; by 1930, the figure rose to 5 1/2 per cent; by 1940 there were nearly 7 out of every 100 in the aged group. These figures are for the country as a whole, and are no doubt equally true for this neighborhood."

"As a person becomes older, he usually faces many problems of readjustment. Over some of these he personally may have little control. For instance, will he continue to work, or retire, what changes may be needed in his family's scale of living, what hobbies has he developed for recreation or as sources of additional income, and many others."

Benefit Checks

"One source of income which was not available before 1940 is already helping over a million Americans in the older-age group. I refer to the monthly Federal benefit checks under the old-age and survivors insurance program. Right in this county, well over 1,000 aged retired workers, and their wives who are 65 or older, are receiving monthly benefit checks based upon sufficient previous employment under the Social Security Act. At least 100 widows past 65, of insured workers are also receiving benefits."

"The direct efforts of the Federal old-age and survivors insurance program can be realized to a certain extent from the payment of old-age benefits of over $25,000 each month, in this country. In years to come, it will also be increasingly felt in other ways, impossible to measure definitely. It is already a very real help to many old folks in adjusting their way of life upon retirement. As soon as he or she reaches 65, each person who has worked in covered employment should visit the Social Security office. By doing this, he will know definitely what to expect. It may be to his advantage to file a claim even though he plans to continue working, and will not draw benefits until he quits work."

The New Castle office is located at 306 Neshannock avenue. All information or assistance in filing a claim is, of course, furnished without charge of any kind.

Would Probe Mines For Safety During Stoppage Of Work

HARRISBURG, April 2.—(INS)—

An investigation of safety conditions in Pennsylvania's bituminous and anthracite mines during the "memorial" work stoppage today was proposed in a resolution before the Senate mines committee. The resolution was referred to committee after Majority Leader O. J. Tamm, Lehigh, objected to its immediate adoption on grounds that such an investigation would be "difficult in the course of six days" and that an inspection would not "preclude the possibility of accidents." It was co-sponsored by Democratic Senators Burton E. Tarr, Fayette, W. J. Lane, Greene, and Elmer J. Holland, Allegheny. Inspection during the morning period called by John L. Lewis in memory of 111 bituminous miners killed in the Centralia, Ill., mine disaster was recommended to insure safety laws were being observed and "that all mines are in condition which precludes the possibility of accidents and disaster."

NICKELS FOR CUBA

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—(INS)—Workmen began today to load 45 tons of Cuban nickels aboard a Cuban cruiser docked in Philadelphia.

The nickels represent the balance of a Cuban order that has been awaiting shipment for several months at the Philadelphia mint. The mint is the cruiser Cuba, which was built at Cramp's shipyard in Philadelphia 35 years ago.

President Sends Note Of Sympathy To New Greek King

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—President Truman today expressed his profound sympathy over the sudden death of King George of Greece.

In a message of condolence to King Paul, the new ruler, Mr. Truman said: "On behalf of the government and people of the United States I extend to you and to the Greek nation profound sympathy upon the death of your brother, H. M. George II."

Acting Secretary of State Acheson also expressed his regrets. Acheson sent to the embassy at Athens the following message to Prime Minister Maximos: "It is with deep regret that I have learned of the death of King George II and I wish to express my sincere sympathy to you and the people of Greece."

F. 2-C JACK ROSE COMING

Jack Rose, fireman 2-c, of the minesweeper U. S. S. Towhee, will arrive Saturday at the Pittsburgh airport. He will spend a 15-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rose, 302 Boyles avenue. F. Rose has been with the second task force on a Caribbean cruise with stopovers in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

The ancients used cobalt, copper and manganese to color glass.

To Protest Fees In Railroad Case

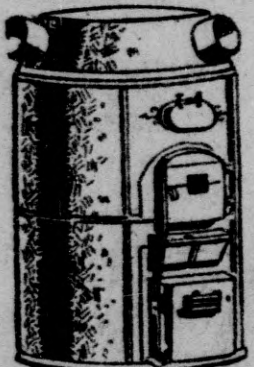

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—(INS)—Protests will be made at a hearing in Philadelphia April 21 against assertedly "excessive" fees in the Pennroad Corp.-Pennsylvania railroad litigation.

Pennroad officials said fees, allowances and expenses totaling $2,485,000 recommended for lawyers and stockholder committee members would be challenged before U. S. District Judge George A. Weich.

Claims include an award of $1,950,000 for a group of legal advisers who have been chief counsel for Pennroad stockholders for 11 years.

Water will dissolve more things than any other liquid on earth.

Avert Transport Strike In Mining Area Of Scranton

SCRANTON, Pa., April 2.—(INS)—

A threatened strike which would have crippled transportation in the mining regions around Scranton was averted early today.

Four hundred Scranton Transit Co. employees scheduled to go out at midnight voted at a last-minute meeting to submit their grievances to arbitration.

The union members at the same time rejected the company's offer of a five-cents an hour pay increase, a boost of two cents from the firm's original offer.

The transit employees, who receive one dollar per hour, are asking an increase of 35 cents hourly. Present pay and working conditions will prevail pending arbitration.

The transit company operates buses and street cars in Old Forge, Scranton and Carbondale.

Youngstown Police Seeking Thieves

YOUNGSTOWN, April 2.—City

police are on the lookout for thieves who early Tuesday opened a concrete and steel vault and two safes at the William Herbert and Sons Storage company and the clubrooms of Ault-Mori Grotto.

A .38 caliber revolver and $220 in cash were stolen from the storage company vault, while the lodge room suffered more damage in property than the value of goods stolen.

BOOK SALES JUMP

CHICAGO.—(INS)—Publishers of the World Book Encyclopedia report that sales of reference books in 1946 increased all out of proportion to that of business in general. The report added that these unusual increases in sales are largely the result of parents' growing concern over their children's schooling, and their desire to supplement it in the home.

Minersville, Pa. Blast Leaves Two Families Homeless

MINERSVILLE, Pa., April 2.—

(INS)—Two families were left homeless today in the wake of a dynamite explosion felt throughout Schuylkill county.

Windows in dozens of homes were shattered when 200 sticks of dynamite stored in a shack in the outskirts of Minersville let loose.

The families of Charles Lapinsky, a disabled veteran, and Jacob Wehry were forced out by buckling walls. Wehry's daughter, Jane Anne, 30, was knocked unconscious and cut by glass. In another house a six-month-old child was hurt slightly.

State police said the explosives had been stored by Mark Drazmovich, a sawmill operator. The shack and a German shepherd dog guarding it, were blown to bits.

FAMOUS GORILLA IGNORES BIRTHDAY PARTY FESTIVITIES

CHICAGO, April 2.—(INS)—Bushman, famed gorilla of Chicago's Lincoln Park zoo, had only himself to blame today if he didn't enjoy his 19th birthday.

Bushman spruned efforts of his keepers and fans to help him celebrate the anniversary yesterday. Wags said the world's biggest, ugliest and hungriest ape was afraid the party was an April Fool's joke. By his aloofness, the 550-pound beast missed a "jungle" birthday cake, garnished with 19 celery candles.

The cake was made of two huge loaves of rye bread, filled with fruit salad and topped with chocolate candy icing. Paul P. Cret, in consultation with Alexander B. Trowbridge, was the architect for the Folger Shakespearean Memorial Library at Washington, D. C. The building is classic in spirit although not an archaeological imitation of any particular period of classic architecture.

Holy Week Services In Catholic Churches

Holy Week, the final week of the Lenten season is being observed this week by Catholics the world over and appropriate services are being conducted in the Catholic churches of the area.

On Holy Thursday, the church commemorates the Last Supper at which our Lord instituted the sacraments of the Holy Eucharist and Holy Orders. White vestments are used to celebrate mass, because the institution of the Holy Eucharist is a joyful commemoration. The procession held during services on Holy Thursday commemorates Our Lord's journey to the Mount of Olives after the Last Supper.

On Good Friday, the Church commemorates the Passion and death of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Robes of mourning are used and it is a day of fast and abstinence. It is the most sad and solemn of all days in Holy Week, and black vestments are used.

Holy Saturday at noon, the Lenten season comes to a close.

The scheduled for the Catholic church services in the various churches, follows:

Madonna-Holy Thursday solemn high mass at 8 a.m.; all day adoration; Holy hour 8 to 9 a.m.; Good Friday mass of pre-sanctified at 9 a.m.; Passion on Our Lord sermon in English, 7:30 p.m.; and devotions. WOULD PUT STATE POLICE IN CIVIL SERVICE SYSTEM

HARRISBURG, April 2.—(INS)—Pennsylvania state policemen would be placed under the Commonwealth's Civil Service system under a bill before the House today.

Republican Reps. Harry W. Price, Jr., of Mifflin, and Samuel B. Denison, of Jefferson, co-sponsors of the measure, also introduced a companion bill to boost the strength of the force from 1,600 to 2,000 troopers.

Under the latter measure, troopers would be permitted to reside in quarters of their own choice after two years' service.

HOTEL FILES FOR DAMAGES INCURRED BY WARTIME SPARS

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—(INS)—The government today pondered a $9,454 bill for damages allegedly inflicted by SPARS on a Philadelphia hotel.

Suit was brought in U. S. District Court by the Benjamin Franklin hotel, where the feminine coast guard members were billeted in wartime.

Hotel officials asserted that in two years occupancy, the SPARS (short for "Semper Paratus—Always Ready") damaged furniture and carpets—and walked off with $98 worth of lampshades.

Chemicals called additives are put in motor oils for cleaner engine performance.

Average Prices Received By State Farmers Higher

Bureau Of Agriculture Statistics Shows Prices Better Than In Majority Of States

By ARTHUR C. WIMER

(Washington Correspondent of The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—

The average prices being received by farmers on March 15 were higher for most important crop and livestock items in Pennsylvania than a majority of the state, the bureau of agricultural statistics reports.

On 18 major items sold by farmers, average prices were higher on 11 in Pennsylvania than in the country at large, were the same for one and lower in the state for six.

The 11 items on which average farm prices were higher in Pennsylvania than most states are listed below, with figures showing first, the Pennsylvania average and second, the U. S. average: corn, $2.42 and $1.50 per bushel; oats, 95 cents and 89 cents per bushel; potatoes, $1.45 and $1.39 per bushel; hogs, $26.50 and $26.40 per hundredweight; beef cattle, $18.80 and $18.50 per hundredweight; veal calves, $23.60 and $20.20 per hundredweight; sheep, $8.50 and $8.28 per hundredweight; butter, 75 cents and 64 cents per pound; chickens, 32.5 cents and 26.6 cents per pound; turkeys, 39 cents and 29.7 cents per pound; and eggs, 45.6 cents and 40 cents per dozen.

The six items on which average farm prices were lower in Pennsylvania than the country are listed below, with figures showing first, the Pennsylvania average and second, the U. S. average: wheat, $2.42 and $2.44 per bushel; rye, $1.75 and $2.81 per bushel; buckwheat, $1.45 and $1.46 per bushel; apples, $2.70 and $2.93 per bushel; lambs, $19.50 and $20 per hundredweight and hay, $16 and $17.40 per ton.

Tax Millage Little Changed

Millage Rates Have Not Varied Great Deal In Recent Years

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Despite increases in commodities and wages in the past 17 years in local government the local tax levy for city, county and schools in the City of New Castle has remained fairly constant, a check of the tax millages in that period of time reveals.

In 1931 the total levy on the city was 37 mills, divided 12 mills city, 16 mills for schools and nine mills for the county. The total for 1947 is 37½ mills, of which 13 mills is city, 20 mills is school and 4½ mills county. There has been an increase in city and school millages and a reduction in the county.

The lowest total millage in the 17 year period is 1941 when a total of 32 mills was levied. The highest is 1937 when the total millage was 39. The average total tax millage levied on city properties for city, school and county purposes over the 17 years is approximately 35.34 mills.

The decrease in assessed valuation of properties was $54,580,020. For 1947, with the total not yet completed, the total assessed valuation looks to be about $49,100,000.

In other words, the total tax income for 1947 in New Castle will be considerably lower than it was in 1931. There is a difference between the assessed valuations for city purposes in the city and for county purposes in the city, and a comparison of city assessed values and county assessed values in the city in the 17 years would show the county assessed values higher proportionately.

DOG TAGS HIGH

This year continues to be running high in the sale of dog licenses. At noon Tuesday the total was 8,340, which is almost as many as the total for some years not too long ago. It is estimated there are still over 2,000 unlicensed dogs in the county.

Thousands Of Veterans Being Given Training

HARRISBURG, April 2.—(INS)—The department of public instruction today announced that 45,804 business and industrial plants have been authorized to train veterans in Pennsylvania under the GI Bill of Rights.

Six thousand plants were approved for apprenticeship training programs while the remainder were permitted to conduct on-the-job instruction, according to Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas.

The department's approval also covered 929 private schools offering training in trades, crafts and occupations, Haas said. The average course lasted 18 months, he added.

Haas said Veterans Administration reports indicated that 45,804 Pennsylvania veterans were being trained in industrial and business facilities while 87,000 were attending colleges and 158,000 were enrolled in other educational institutions.

CARE, MANAGEMENT OF COWS IMPORTANT

Breeding up a dairy herd for increased milk and butterfat production is important, but unless the cows are properly fed and get the right management, the gains from good breeding can easily be lost. R. Welch, dairy extension specialist of Pennsylvania State college, stressed the importance of herd care at a dairy meeting held recently in New Wilmington.

By breeding successive generations of cows to superior sires, as is made possible through artificial breeding, herds can be steadily improved. Production records are important as guides in selection of cows for breeding and for culling low producers. Herd test, D. H. I. A., or private records will give this information.

A six to eight weeks rest period before freshening helps the cow to add weight and prepare for a heavy production period. Records show that the grain fed during this period is more important than that given while the cow is milking.

Softball Umpires To Meet Thursday

There will be a meeting Thursday at 8:15 p. m., at the Y. M. C. A. for anyone who would like to umpire in the City Softball League this year.

There are some very important matters to be taken up in regards to the league. There is some indication of a twelve team league and there is room for umpires. Anyone interested should be at this meeting.

Slovak Baseball Meeting Thursday

Business Manager Connie Zuk of the Slovak Baseball club has announced a meeting for 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the club rooms. All those interested in the Slovak 1947 baseball team are to attend.

RABBIT AND CAVEY GROUP WILL MEET

New Castle Rabbit and Cavey association will meet this evening at the Ball Furnace company office, 120 Market street, at 8 o'clock. Plans will be laid for the one-day show to be held on May 11. It is hoped that all members will turn out.

Volant Baseball Meeting Tonight

All interested persons in the Volant area in having a baseball team this summer are to meet at the Volant school house tonight at eight o'clock for an important session. Volant is planning to enter baseball again this year with a championship team.

Ryantown Team Meets Thursday

All members of the Ryantown baseball team are urged to attend the important meeting at the home of Robert Smiley, McCleary avenue, at 7 o'clock Thursday evening. Plans for the coming 1947 City Baseball league will be discussed.

Lou Boudreau, the Cleveland pilot, has one terrific he-man problem and several tantalizing minor ones. Did Bobby Feller overdo things last year? And how much weight are they to put on his broad shoulders?

Promoting bouts on a regular date the year around has caused many changes in boxing in N. Y. It goes without saying that it has given the fighters many more pay days—in New York, at any rate—than they otherwise would have had.

Mr. Fitzsimmons—Sunny Jim, that is—has a flicker of hope that he will have a horse in the Kentucky Derby, and that he might win this big one for the fourth time. It's just a hope, though.

Chief among them, of course, is Big Hank Greenberg, shunted out of the American league and to Pittsburgh—for $50,000—by Detroit. If the big slugger can pickle that apple for the Pirates as he did for the Tigers last year, he alone can pull the Bucs into the first division.

Pirate 'Castoffs' Are Expected To Pull Team Upward

President McKinney Hopes To See Pittsburgh Finish Higher Than Seventh Place

By JIMMY JORDAN
(International News Service Staff Writer)

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—The Pirate front office calls them "interim" players.

But Pittsburgh baseball fans, and just about every other club in the National league, figures they not only can pull the Bucs out of seventh place where they floundered last year, but possibly can make a pennant contender of the club.

They're the guys—most of them pitchers—who got the "castoff" tag from other clubs in both the National and American leagues.

Hank Heads List
Chief among them, of course, is Big Hank Greenberg, shunted out of the American league and to Pittsburgh—for $50,000—by Detroit.

The National Rads and Sons of Italy did not have any managers present. Bird Riley, head of the softball umpires association was present and stated that his organization will again handle all games for the league.

The following teams were present, East Side Merchants, New Castle Redskins, DeCarbos, Traimenes, VFW No. 315, South Side Lions, Johnson-Bronze, Forest A. C., Dewey A. C. and Duca D'Abuzzis.

The minor league czar called attention to a program in Dallas, Tex., where police cruisers carry baseball equipment. When patrolmen see a gang of boys apparently looking for something to do, they distribute bats and balls.

Trautman said baseball's efforts would be in line with a nationwide program for prevention and control of juvenile delinquency. The program was started by Attorney General Tom Clark, who enlisted the aid of sports writers and broadcasters.

And, of course, there's Manager Billy Herman, himself, who is classed as an interim player, with his managerial tenure depending on performance.

Frank McKinney, the Pirates' new president who supplied the transfusion that rejuvenated the club by merely pulling a bunch of purse strings, says his "interims" will do a lot for Pittsburgh.

General Manager Roy Hamey is high on those castoff pitchers he has. "Ernie Bonham should do us a lot of good," he said recently.

Regulars Are Back
All of last year's regulars with the exception of Bob Elliott, who went to Boston in the Herman deal, are back.

"Their morale is higher," one Pirate official said. "There was dissension when that baseball guild thing was causing trouble here last year."

"Even without the new players, with only the new spirit the team is showing, they'll finish a lot higher than in 1946."

Maybe they will. Anyway, they've got other managers worried.

Junior Baseball Meeting Changed To Monday Night

Representatives Of American Legion Junior Teams Will Meet Next Monday

Chairman A. Wesley Mann Jr. of the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion Junior Baseball activity, announced today that the meeting scheduled for Thursday evening in the Legion Home has been postponed until next Monday evening. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Any team desiring representation in the league must have a representative at this meeting. Chairman Mann states.

Volant Baseball Meeting Tonight

All interested persons in the Volant area in having a baseball team this summer are to meet at the Volant school house tonight at eight o'clock for an important session. Volant is planning to enter baseball again this year with a championship team.

Ten Teams Attend Softball Meeting

Election Of Officers Postponed Till Later Meeting, Umpire Head Attends

New Castle city softball league managers held a meeting at the "Y" last night with Rocco P. Viggiano, conducting the session. Ten teams and representatives at the meeting. No election of officers was held, this matter being postponed until a later date.

The following teams were present, East Side Merchants, New Castle Redskins, DeCarbos, Traimenes, VFW No. 315, South Side Lions, Johnson-Bronze, Forest A. C., Dewey A. C. and Duca D'Abuzzis.

The minor league czar called attention to a program in Dallas, Tex., where police cruisers carry baseball equipment. When patrolmen see a gang of boys apparently looking for something to do, they distribute bats and balls.

Sports Program Will Help Youths

COLUMBUS, O., April 2.—(INS)—National Association President George M. Trautman pledged today that minor league baseball would go all-out to aid in curbing juvenile delinquency.

In a letter to club and league presidents, Trautman urged formation of knot hole gangs and promotion of sandlot baseball.

Pulaskis Card Three Big Games

Harlem Hoboes, Pittsburgh Steelers, Washington, D. C., Jesters Coming

K. Pulaski "Big Five" basketball team has carded three stellar attractions for the Arena floor next week, it was announced today by Coach and Manager Al Gonet.

Monday night, April 7th, the famous Harlem Hoboes of Philadelphia will appear here, composed of colored pros and college stars to battle the Pulaskis. Wednesday, April 9th, the Pittsburgh Steelers will play here, composed of Pittsburgh Steeler football stars. Friday, April 11th the Washington, D. C. Court Jesters, a famous colored quintet will be here. The Jesters are said to be a traveling basketball team.

Hershey Bears Defeat Hornets

HERSHEY, Pa., April 2.—(INS)—The Hershey Bears were one-up on the Pittsburgh Hornets today in their best-of-seven series for the Calder cup representing the championship of the American Ice Hockey league.

The Bears blanked Pittsburgh, 4-0 last night in the Sports Arena before a sell-out crowd. The next game will be played in the Arena.

Universals Will Meet Thursday

Universal Pottery baseball players will have a meeting at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at Frenkel's on Moravia street Extension, it was announced by Business Manager Harry Park today. All of the 1946 players and others interested in the team will meet for discussion of the coming 1947 city baseball league season.

Oakland Sportsmen To Meet Tonight

Members of the Oakland Sportsmen association will have an important meeting tonight at the K. Pulaski Hall at 8 o'clock, it was announced by President Joseph Waskins.

All members are urged to attend as several matters of vital interest to the club will be taken up for discussion.

Roller Hockey Attracts Crowd

Roller hockey returned to New Castle last night for the first time in eight years, with over 300 persons at the Arena floor for the game between the Arena Skate Club team and Stoughtons, the Arena team winning 5 to 3.

Quite a few old timers at the roller hockey game filled in for the visitors for the opening battle. A Hobo skate party was held prior to the game, and was a success.

Several industrial firms are talking about a roller hockey league here next winter.

Ellwood Anxious To Play Champion

Ellwood City's Catholic Center cagers, through their business manager, Charles Maietta, today issued a challenge to clash with the winner of the senior tourney.

The Tubers, coached by Dick Friedhoff, are Municipal League titleholders in Ellwood and won the recent Tri-County tourney. Their record stands at 36 wins and 9 losses.

Against New Castle quintets they have posted seven triumphs and two defeats.

fact that the New Wilmington Legion dribblers almost put the damper on the Davis crew Monday night.

The Jungle Cats had to dig deep to down the Legionnaires 36-35 and the Big Five players are confident they can also cause the Davis men some anxious moments.

The Lions whipped the V. F. W. team 65-22 prior to their Monday win, while the Big Five players have disposed of the Milton A. C. 42-27 and the Shenango "Y" 41-33.

Ecclesiastics Anxious
In the second contest of the evening the K. Pulaski-Ecclesiastics battle should keep the fans on the edges of their seats. The Ecclesiastics have waited all season for a tilt with the Gonet men and would cherish nothing more than an upset of the powerful Polish passers.

In their advance they have dumped the West Side Boosters 35-25 and the Universal A. A. 36-28. The Pulaskis have not been extended in their two games—winning by lopsided scores over the Fannins 64-28 and the Bessemer Legion 63-36.

Tourney manager Jimmy Dart reminded the fans today that the final game will be played Saturday night instead of Friday.

This evening the doors at the school will open at 7:15.

Gus Five-Lions, K. P. - Ecclesiastics Ready For Action

Expect Heated Contests In Semi-Final Pairings As Play Nears Finish

Out of tonight's battles at the George Washington High floor will emerge the two senior cage outfits who will struggle for the City-County championship trophy.

Beginning at 7:45 the Gus Big Five will meet the Lions Club flippers and in the 9 p. m. "go" it will be the vaunted K. Pulaski five against the Ecclesiastics.

Both games will feature collegiate ruling on time—the quarters to be 10 minutes in length.

Hope For Upset

The Gus Big Five will be going all out tonight to submerge the strong Lions, bearing in mind the fact that the New Wilmington Legion dribblers almost put the damper on the Davis crew Monday night.

The Jungle Cats had to dig deep to down the Legionnaires 36-35 and the Big Five players are confident they can also cause the Davis men some anxious moments.

The Lions whipped the V. F. W. team 65-22 prior to their Monday win, while the Big Five players have disposed of the Milton A. C. 42-27 and the Shenango "Y" 41-33.

Ecclesiastics Anxious
In the second contest of the evening the K. Pulaski-Ecclesiastics battle should keep the fans on the edges of their seats. The Ecclesiastics have waited all season for a tilt with the Gonet men and would cherish nothing more than an upset of the powerful Polish passers.

In their advance they have dumped the West Side Boosters 35-25 and the Universal A. A. 36-28. The Pulaskis have not been extended in their two games—winning by lopsided scores over the Fannins 64-28 and the Bessemer Legion 63-36.

Tourney manager Jimmy Dart reminded the fans today that the final game will be played Saturday night instead of Friday.

This evening the doors at the school will open at 7:15.

Roller Hockey Attracts Crowd

Roller hockey returned to New Castle last night for the first time in eight years, with over 300 persons at the Arena floor for the game between the Arena Skate Club team and Stoughtons, the Arena team winning 5 to 3.

Quite a few old timers at the roller hockey game filled in for the visitors for the opening battle. A Hobo skate party was held prior to the game, and was a success.

Several industrial firms are talking about a roller hockey league here next winter.

Universals Will Meet Thursday

Universal Pottery baseball players will have a meeting at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at Frenkel's on Moravia street Extension, it was announced by Business Manager Harry Park today. All of the 1946 players and others interested in the team will meet for discussion of the coming 1947 city baseball league season.

Oakland Sportsmen To Meet Tonight

Members of the Oakland Sportsmen association will have an important meeting tonight at the K. Pulaski Hall at 8 o'clock, it was announced by President Joseph Waskins.

All members are urged to attend as several matters of vital interest to the club will be taken up for discussion.

HAD a chat with Russell Baxter, local larruper, who has been riding the toboggan recently, and he told Here & There that, following his fight with Harold Green, at Wilkes-Barre, April 10, he proposes to take a several months rest. "I seem to be stale," he stated. "You did everything wrong when you boxed Larry Huff here and repeated your performance when you boxed Charlie Hayes in Cleveland. You threw your punches and held your head in the air like a beacon to shoot at, instead of punching correcting and hiding your chin," we told him. "What you need is a tutor." Here & There told Russ, who in our opinion, is a very personable fellow. "Yes, you are right about the tutoring, but there are none around here," he replied, then said that, the knockout handed him by Mike Berkovich at Youngstown, took some of the confidence out of him. "You have to forget that knockout." Here & There told Russ. Baxter has had a "hard run of ill luck" recently, but he's yet young and possibly a rest and some good tutoring, will benefit him. In Green, he will find a tough mauler who hits good with his right hand, hence Baxter's best battle plan is to box him. . . . When Bill Pozza appeared in the ring as a second Monday night, he wore a "closed eye," the gift of Lou King of Rochester, who chastised Pozza in three rounds.

Jim Hodge, the Harlansburg outdoorsman reported to Here & There Sunday that "I haven't seen a deer since three days after the season closed, there are few fox, some hawks and I saw a couple of kluders". No sooner had he made his report than he pointed out a groundhog, cavorting in a wheat field. . . . C. B. White, fish protector for Lawrence County, reported his spring schedule of stocking has been completed. . . . No persons were seen fishing along the Slippery Rock for suckers, Sunday. . . . Good sportsmen will remain away from creeks in which trout were stocked. . . . Arrangements are going forward for the Lawrence County Sportsman's Association banquet, in the Cathedral, April 10. S. Dale Furst, vice president, state federation of sportsmen, will be the principal spokesman. Judge W. Walter Braham, an ardent angler, will be toastmaster. . . . There are several properties posted along streams in which trout were stocked. However, according to Fish Protector Clinton B. White, no fish were stocked at such points. . . . Jimmy Dunn and Tom McMahon came from Cleveland to see Monday night's fights. . . . Incidentally, Dunn said that "in my opinion Jimmy Doyle will not fight Sugar Robinson in Cleveland in May. He's too young. The time for Doyle to fight Robinson, is a year from now."

GI bill of rights works in baseball. Benny McCoy and Bob Harris, former Athletics, who filed back pay suits against the team, are expected to receive payments soon. The amounts have not been stated, but they are understood to be $10,000 for McCoy, and $5,000 for Harris. . . . Duilio Spagnolo, Italian, did not make an auspicious debut. Lee Savoid scored a TKO over Spag' in the eighth round at Boston. . . . John Rafferty will succeed Ray Bost as basketball coach at Jamestown, Pa., high. . . . Because of the record number of entries in doubles and singles, additional dates are planned for Lancaster. The tourney was set for April 12. . . . Of Marcel Cerdan, Bill Corum, sports authority writes: "Cerdan, Ah, mon vieux, there is a fighting man. There is a fellow with the qualities that have made France." . . . Dutch Warmerdam is the new track coach at Stanford. . . . New York ring commission has notified fighters to get new trunks to improve television visibility. . . . No fighter should be allowed to wear the same color tights as an opponent.

NEW YORK, April 2.—According to a dispatch from London, the world's amateur athletes, if any, may be wasting their time in going through elaborate preparations for participation in the Olympic games scheduled next year.

If England manages somehow to hold the games at all it probably will be on a hit and miss basis.

In case you've forgotten there was a war not so long ago, and that was followed in England by a coal crisis and floods as part of a hang-over that included a terrible food shortage. Sports have been rationed to week-ends only and that is the center of the Olympic games problem.

Funds Curtailed

This has curtailed much of the revenue that would have found its way into the Olympics games fund, and what the British are doing now is simply hoping for the best next year, while admitting that they had hoped for the best this year only to get much the worst of it.

For instance, Wembley stadium authorities guaranteed $500,000 toward the Olympic games, assuming that greyhound racing—main source of stadium revenue—would go on uncurtailed. However, the greyhounds have been fettered along with all other participants in the London sports world, and this grant may be cut sharply or lost entirely.

Feeding Important
Proper feeding of the athletes is another problem. The British runner, fighter, weight-thrasher and other muscle men get no special consideration.

There also is a housing problem for athletes to be gathered from all over the world.

If the British can get over all these obstacles and still come up with the Olympic games the feat will overshadow anything likely to happen in the games themselves.

May Relax Ban

There is some talk that there will be a letup on the sports ban in the next few months, but many observers expect to see this curtailment in effect on into next year. That could be the finisher insofar as the games are concerned.

The main factor assuring that the games will be held as scheduled is Britain's determination to go thru with the show after being deprived of putting it on in 1940. A guy named Hitler took a full windup and threw a perfect strike with a monkey wrench aimed at the machinery along about that time. There have been no games since—or since 1936, when that same late, unlamented Hitler put them on.

On this latter occasion the German athletes wielded Olympic instruments with one hand and rattled their muskets with the other preparatory to going to war, the effects of which will bear on this resumption of the great display of brotherly love.

America—well-fed and sharp—should be a cinch to take these next games from Europe's undernourished athletes—provided, that is, the games are held. They probably will be but there is a marked lack of enthusiasm in England at the moment.

Jonas Howard Ingram began his reign as commissioner of the All America Football Conference with a pledge of no-quarter warfare against gambling in the loop.

WHAT GOES UP must come down and that goes for Zoe Ann Olsen, the national diving champion. The International Speed-ray camera catches Zoe Ann as she executes a half-gainer, half-twist and a forward one-and-a-half, in an exhibition in San Francisco. (International)

F. M. Sagabiel Reports To Navy Pre-Flight Base

Midshipman Frederick M. Sagabiel, USN, son of Mrs. Esther M. Sagabiel, of New Bedford, has reported to the U. S. Navy Preflight school, Ottumwa, Ia., from Westminster college.

Upon completion of the 30-week course at this station he will be sent to the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Tex., for flight training.

Meeting Tonight At Union High

Union Civic and Athletic Association will hold its regular meeting this evening at the Union high auditorium with the meeting to be turned over to F. D. McPheeters, chairman of the Union Township Volunteer Fire Department organizing committee. The balance of the program will be used to organize the volunteer group. The meeting is at 8 o'clock.

The pennant chances of the New York Yankees dropped sharply as a result of the disclosure that their star outfielder, Joe DiMaggio, may not be able to play for the first half of the season.

President Urges Rent Controls Be Extended Year

WASHINGTON, April 2.—(INS)—President Truman on Tuesday afternoon sent a special message to congress recommending that rent controls be extended for another year beyond June 30.

The chief executive told congress that he was making the recommendation because "the nation is still faced with a critical housing shortage."

He asked that the functions of rent controls be administered by the housing expediter.

Mr. Truman acted under public law 548 which provides that the president shall report to congress recommendations on continuing controls on any necessities that are still in critical short supply.

The president declared that vacancies in rental units are virtually non-existent in 88 cities of the nation covered in a recent survey.

Vital Necessity
He asserted that "effective rent and eviction control" still continues to be a vital necessity for the proper protection of millions of American families.

"Despite the rapid upswing in residential construction during 1946 the nation is still faced with a critical housing shortage."

"In 88 cities surveyed by the bureau of labor statistics and the census during 1946, vacancies in rental units were virtually non-existent."

"The vacancy rates in habitable accommodations for these cities ranged from zero to a maximum of one per cent with an average well below one half of one per cent."

"Proper protection of millions of our American families requires that effective rent and eviction control be extended beyond June 30, 1947, for a further period of one year, and I so recommend."

Wheaton Glee Club At Baptist Church

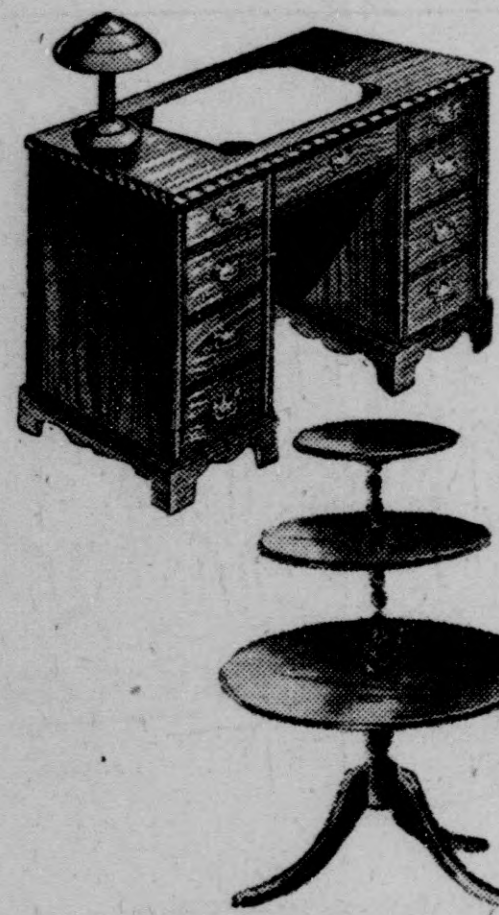

Concert Of Sacred Music Will Be Presented Thursday Evening In Downtown Church

Power and depth of tone will characterize the concert of sacred music to be presented by the Men's Glee club of Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., at the First Baptist church, North and East streets, on Thursday evening, April 3, at 8 o'clock.

Under the direction of H. William Nordin, associate professor of music at the college, the 33 men on tour will open the concert with "I Sat Down Under His Shadow" followed by "O Sacred Head". These numbers will be followed by other group selections.

Four members of the chorus will form a brass quartet to play several numbers after which the chorus will open its second group of selections. Preston Rockholt, violinist, and a vocal quartet composed of four members of the chorus will be heard during intermission. The entire glee club will join in the closing numbers which will include "The Creation" and "Pilgrim's Chorus."

Joining with the First Baptist church in the sacred concert will be the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, April 2.—(INS)—Susan Hayward, Jess Barker and the twins have been in their new home three months and they still are practically camping out.

"The place is really very sparsely furnished because I've been so busy I haven't had a chance to get to things," Susan said.

She's now working in "The Lost Love" for Walter Wanger after giving an academy award performance in "Smash-Up."

"At least, we're better off now than when we moved in Christmas Eve," she laughed, "about all we were able to set up, except for the beds, was the Christmas tree."

Evicted From Homes

Susan and her husband went searching for a home to buy after they'd been evicted from rented homes three times. The last time they couldn't find a house to rent and they spent better than a month in a swanky Santa Monica hotel.

"Of course, we bought a place because we had to," she explained. "We didn't want to do it at this time but we had no alternative."

"We're only getting around now to having the place repainted."

"I didn't get an estimate on furniture, but I guess the figure would have come to $20,000 to $25,000."

"I've decided to have the furniture handmade as soon as I can get the right man to do it. I want it substantial so I won't have to worry about what the children do to it."

The children are Timothy and Gregory.

Susan added: "I want the furniture substantial enough so they can run into it with their bicycles."

Lovely Crop Of Freckles

Martha Stewart has come back from Florida with a lovely crop of freckles which has 20th Century-

Fox in a dither. The studio has told her to get rid of them before she starts her first co-starring role with Dan Dailey in "Off to Buffalo."

Martha went east six months ago to appear in her first Broadway show, "Park Avenue." After it closed she went to Miami where her husband, Joe E. Lewis, famed night club comedian, was appearing.

Said Martha: "I thought I'd come back to California with a good Florida tan, but it never works out that way. My freckles just got darker."

"Now I've got to take a daily lemon bleach so I'll look right when I go before the camera."
